CAB DRIVER'S KILLING SOLVED

Gun Tracing Leads to Arrest Of Northsider

By GEORGE P. STEWART, II
An almost ironical series of events last week led police to the solution of one of the city's four unsolved murders which have had harried police department officials under fire from an outraged community and which have seen numerous youths held for questioning to no avail.

One Northside youth was in serious condition in General hospital this week, shot while fleeing from a policeman, and another was in the Marion County Jail charged with murder in connection with the March 28 killing of a white cab driver.

Police got their first break in the case when ballistic tests showed the gun taken from Harry "Lefty" Johnson early Saturday morning, a .22-caliber derringer, was the one which killed Cab Driver John Campbell.

Johnson was shot as he attempted to flee from a policeman.

CONFESSED CABBY SLAYER: Dickie Gilbert, left, 22, 926 Congress, fidgets nervously with a signed confession in which he admits the pistol slaying, March 28, of Checker Cab Driver John B. Campbell. Although Gilbert's confession this week virtually cleared the case, Sgt. James V. Dobner (right), who was instrumental in tracking down the killer, said he is still not satisfied with some of Gilbert's answers. (Recorder photo by Jim Burres.)

"No Step Backward," Says NAACP In Extending '58 Membership Drive

By CHARLES PRESTON
Determined to take "no step backward" despite hard times that apparently are making it more difficult to obtain members, the Indianapolis NAACP last week extended its annual membership drive to May 25.

The action was taken at a large and enthusiastic "Candidates' Night" meeting held April 18 at the United Packinghouse Workers' Hall, 621 W. Washington.

Members displayed keen interest in questions of the forthcoming primary election, as discussed by Atty. Frank R. Beckwith, Republican candidate for the state legislature; Atty. Mercer M. Mance, Democratic candidate for judge of Superior Court 2; and D.W.D. Hector, Democrat for Center Township justice of the peace.

ATTY. BECKWITH, calling for a stronger FEPC law in Indiana, blasted the "Chamber of Commerce people" whom he charged with keeping labor divided along racial lines.

The veteran public champion also advocated increases in the Indianapolis Police Department budget and the General Hospital budget by state law; repeal or amendment of the Right to Work Law; and a return to the legislative district system of electing state representatives.

"I am out to win, but I have found that even when I lose, many of the things I advocate are picked up by other candidates who ultimately convince themselves they believe in them," Beckwith said.

Atty. Mance said he seeks the nomination "not because of my racial designation, but because I believe I am the best qualified candidate regardless of color."

Mr. Hector, on the other hand, asked for public support "not for myself, but for us." He said it is time that a Negro should hold the office of "J.P." in Center Township, which has such a large Negro population.

DESPITE AN ENROLLMENT of only 933 members toward a goal of 3,000, leaders expressed confidence as the deadline was extended to reach a climax in a city-wide church meeting May 25. The period from May 1-25 will see special concentration in the churches, under the leadership of Rev. Andrew J. Brown, pastor of Greater St. John Baptist.

But after the Recorder sports page went to press, the deal was nixed by Bill Shover of The Indianapolis Star, game director for the Indiana-Kentucky series that will be held June 21 and 28.

Shover ruled that Searcy and 5 other boys on the "anti-Kentucky" team would be held ineligible if they played against Ohio. He said all 6 then decided to play only in the Indiana-Kentucky series.

As reported on Page 11, both Searcy and LeVern Benson were chosen for an all-Indiana team which will meet Ohio's finest June 9 at Ft. Wayne, under sponsorship of the Ft. Wayne Amateur Athletic Club.

"Wine, Women, Song" Combination Erupts in Killing of White Man

Wine, women and song make a sure-fire promise of things to come, whether they are providing inspiration for a Strauss waltz or whether they combine to lead to a sudden, senseless killing as they did early last Saturday morning at the Bonded Service Station at 25th and College.

In this case the "wine" was beer and scotch, the "women" were two sisters already with one killing forming a question-mark in their life history, and the "song" was a car radio turned up loud to provide dancing music for the sisters and four young white fellows.

Dead as result of the mixture is WILLIAM ABRAMS, 25, 2345 Central.

The two sisters, Ida Mae Burney and Verna Lee Williams, rode into the filling station with Spencer Heard, Jr., and John Hudson Wright to use the restrooms, according to a statement Heard made to police. They had been drinking heavily at a Southside tavern.

After a conversation was struck up between Abrams and Heard, the filling station attendant, who was not on duty at the time, offered his new-found Negro friend some beer. Heard, in turn, offered his fifth of scotch to Abrams and three friends gathered at the station.

BECOMING BETTER ACQUAINTED, the four white fellows began dancing with the two sisters after Abrams turned his car radio up loud. After a little bit, Verna Lee got back into the car with Heard and Wright, who had never left the car.

As Ida Mae remained outside the car talking to Abrams, Wright drove the car near the couple and told Ida Mae to get inside. When she wouldn't, Verna Lee told Heard to get out and make her get into the car.

Abrams, holding Ida Mae by the arm, hit Heard in the mouth, according to the statement, when the latter pulled at the woman.

Rev. Ford Gibson, branch president, presided at the meeting while Mrs. Jessie Jacobs, state 2nd vice-president, officiated during the political discussion.

Mr. Hector, on the other hand, asked for public support "not for myself, but for us." He said it is time that a Negro should hold the office of "J.P." in Center Township, which has such a large Negro population.

SCENE OF TRAGEDY: On this rumpled bed, two-year-old Bertha Willis was killed Monday when a revolver went off in the hands of her five-year-old brother in their home in the rear of 630 N. West. The children's grandfather, Millous Sims, 68, seemed astonished the boy was able to find the gun. "I had it hidden 'way back up under the pillow," he said. (Recorder photo by Bill Raspberry.)

Loses Eye in Mistaken Identity Afternoon Fight

A fight last Saturday afternoon ended with one man in General hospital without the sight of his left eye and two others in jail with charges of assault and battery with intent to kill lodged against them.

Police answering a radio call to 622 Fayette found James Battles, 27, 707 Muskingum, lying on the yard with head and face injuries and his left eye partly out of socket.

Levi Franklin, 32, 310 W. North, told investigating officers he was with Battles when he was struck with a chair by R. T. King, 48, and hit with a brick by Alexander King, 58.

Both men live at the Fayette street address.

R. T. King told police that Battles had confused him with "some other man" and chased him into his sister's house with a board.

He said he hit Battles with the chair after Battles had struck him with the board.

Alexander King took up the fight and hit Battles in the head with the brick.

ATKINS FLOWER SHOP WINS TOP PLACE IN CANCER GROUP CONTEST

The Atkins Flower Shop, 2049 N. Capitol, has won first place in a florists' window display contest sponsored by the American Cancer Society through the Allied Florists Guild of Indianapolis. The judging took place Wednesday.

Last year, when the first Cancer Society contest was held, the shop won second place. (See item in "Social Scene," page four.)

Boy Finds Gun Grandpa Thought Was Well Hidden

Little Rodney Barnett was sobbing uncontrollably at 3:37 Monday afternoon as the yard of his home filled with police officers, newspapermen, grief-stricken neighbors and curiosity seekers. He seemed on one hand to be almost in a daze, not having realized what he had just done; yet on the other hand, his heart-broken tears said more clearly than the dazed expression on his face that he did know what a terrible tragedy resulted from innocent, light-hearted play a few minutes earlier.

The five-year-old boy had just killed his baby sister, two-year-old Bertha Willis.

The children's great-grandfather, Millous Sims, 68, was not crying, but you could see the anguish in his face as he looked dazedly at the bloodstains on his shirt.

Sims, who had held the wounded girl in his arms until the ambulance arrived, didn't know that his granddaughter had died before the hastily-summoned vehicle could reach General hospital, only a few blocks away from their home at the rear of 630 N. West.

"Oh, Lord! Was it Peaches?"

Funeral services will be held at 12 Saturday at the church.

Survivors include her husband, J. Wesley Hall; a son, Haydon Chilcress, Louisville; a brother, Benjamin Haydon, E. St. Louis, Ill.; and a nephew, Franklin Beck of Louisville.

Friends may call at Dan Moore Mortuary after 4 Friday.

John C. Bankett, at 81, Seeks 11th District Congress Seat

By WM. A. CHAMBERS

A contrasting package of Diogenes, Socrates and Plato (all in one) in our town, John C. Bankett is a candidate for the nomination for Congressman from the 11th Indiana District.

Mr. Bankett, age 81, 4243 Rookwood, will seek the Congressional nomination, subject to the action of the Republican Primary, May 6.

He is a native of the Hoosier State, and his immediate family has lived in Indiana longer than 100 years. He is a fervent and unceasing patriot, scholarly and able thinker, economist, writer and a former newspaper editor.

Over a period of more than three decades his writings and comments on politico-economic trends of the times infrequently have attracted marked attention in high places over the land.

Mr. Bankett, in other days, traveled widely over our country and in the days of the construction of the Panama Canal was on the scene as a Civil Service employee. His duties eventually related to the security program of the vast project.

MR. BANKETT'S HORIZON of thought is not hemmed in by the narrow lines of national or racial background. Considering issues, institutions, movements or groups he prevails on the way they "cast their spells" and the truthful or equitable developments in all things that follow.

He says that he believes in "the sacredness of the oath of office of the public servant." And any violation of the oath of an elected official to support and uphold the U. S. Constitution should be viewed and treated in the manner of a crime, he added.

He ventured that for nearly three decades the oath of office has meant less and less, or little or nothing to the nation's Chief Executive and an innumerable caravan of members of both the Judicial and Legislative branches of the Federal government.

Mr. Bankett proposed that since World War I, in the halls of the Federal legislative branch of government, people have been elected and have served who have been doing the bidding of an international clique. He said the same applied to the White House, and such people have been out to destroy nationalism in our land.

He contended that because of their actions, we who are Americans must be concerned now and fully about the future of our country.

THE "SOUND ADVICE" of George Washington or warning against entangling alliances abroad has been disobeyed flagrantly, Mr. Bankett asserted.

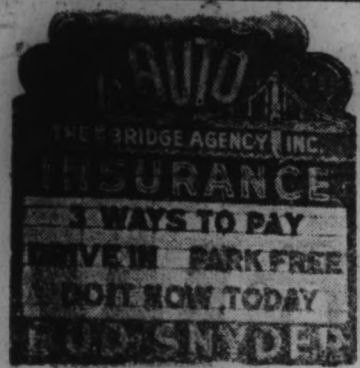

Beginning in the World War I era, our nation entered into entangling European affairs with "dollars and blood," Mr. Bankett stated. And now contrary to the letter and spirit of the "Monroe Doctrine," various European nations have presumed to meddle in our affairs, as we have meddled in their affairs. The blame is finally ours.

In a solemn and despairing tone Mr. Bankett stated that our nation is sunk in debts and disunity because of our meddling in the struggles of European nations for supremacy at home or abroad.

He said, "I have but one ed to flee from Det. Inspector Noel Jones and Sgt. Roger Harrison.

Inspector Jones and Sgt. Harrison had observed Johnson waving the gun in a large group of people on the corner of Edgemoor and Northwestern. After disarming him, they were leading him to their squad car when he broke and ran. SGT. HARRISON SAID he holstered for Johnson to stop and fired a warning shot over his head. Johnson turned into an alley, and Harrison fired two more shots. Johnson fell in the alley, a bullet wound in his back. He was taken to the police ward of General Hospital in critical condition.

When Johnson was asked where he got the gun he told Lieut. Spurgeon Davenport and Sgt. James Dabner he had obtained it from a man at an Indiana avenue night club. But the detectives established that Johnson had not been in the club that night.

The derring-bore marking of a gun company in Burbank, Calif., and knowing that the brother of one of the men with Johnson at the time he was shot had only recently been discharged from Camp Pendleton, Calif., the detectives theorized he might be tied up in the shooting.

Sgt. Dabner picked up the brother, Richard M. "Dickie" Gilbert, at his home, 926 Congress, for questioning.

AFTER TWO HOURS of intensive questioning, Lieut. Davenport said Gilbert stood up, lit a cigarette and said, "I'll tell you who killed the cab driver. I shot him."

In relating the details leading up to the shooting, Gilbert at first told the detectives he was walking alone in the 2800 block of Franklin when a Checker cab pulled up beside him and stopped.

According to Gilbert, the driver, Campbell, jumped out of the cab and accused him of jumping out of the cab without paying the fare.

In his first account Gilbert said he had the gun, which he had obtained from his brother the afternoon of the fatal shooting in his pocket and shot Campbell when he came at him.

However, police did not believe his story because of the direction of travel of the bullet in Campbell's body.

Gilbert, known as a fellow with a "hot temper," changed his story

Monday as to how Campbell was shot.

Gilbert said he was walking on Franklin when the cab drove up and the driver jumped out and demanded a fare. Gilbert quoted the driver as saying "I know you're the guy. I can tell by your trench coat."

Gilbert said, "I had a bottle of whiskey in one pocket and the gun in the other. I was getting hotter by the minute. I pulled the gun and fired at his chest." According to Gilbert, the gun didn't go off because he had forgotten to cock the hammer.

Campbell then threw up his hands and said, "OK, buddy, OK, buddy. Let's forget it" and ran and jumped into his cab.

Gilbert said he followed the man back to the cab and while he was trying to hold the door closed, "I managed to pull the door open and I fired one shot."

"I was damned mad, if I had had a revolver I would have put six holes in him," he declared. The angle at which the slug traveled led police to believe that the "cabbie" might have been shot the way Gilbert described in his second story.

POLICE STILL BELIEVE Gilbert was a member of a gang of four or five responsible for the recent series of cab hold-ups and have been questioning a long list of friends and associates of Gilbert in a relentless effort to supply the missing links in the mystery.

Officers have been unable to explain a hole, believed made by a bullet, in the front seat of the cab and a .32-caliber bullet found on the floor of the morgue. It is believed the slug fell from Campbell's clothing.

Gilbert, who admits owning a .32, claims he does not know where it is.

Johnson, who has been cleared of any connection with the murder, got the derring-bore from William "Chico" Powell, 23, 2614 N. Capitol, Gilbert had pawned the gun to Powell, and Powell had given the gun to Johnson to give to Gilbert earlier on the evening in question.

Gilbert was bound over to the grand jury and is being held in the Marion County jail without bond.

Dr. and Mrs. William C. Baker, 3302 Graceland, are proud parents of a boy, Michael Terrell, born April 2.

Many Prominent Lawyers Endorse Judge Brennan

JUDGE NORMAN E. BRENNAN

Norman E. Brennan, Republican candidate for renomination as judge, Superior Court, Room No. 3, has been endorsed by over 125 prominent Indianapolis attorneys and by the majority of the members of the Indianapolis Bar Association. The popular young jurist, who has already served eight years on the bench and is seeking his third term, expressed gratification at the endorsement which he received from the Indianapolis lawyers. He said:

"I am honored and humbled by the fact that over 125 attorneys of the city have endorsed my candidacy and that the majority of attorneys polled by the Indianapolis Bar Association supported my renomination. After all, it is the lawyers who know me best and I am certainly encouraged by their support."

Judge Brennan is 39 years of age, and resides at 5450 Crawfordsville Road in Speedway. He is a lifelong resident of Marion County, and is married and has four children, age 4 to 11 years. He attended Indianapolis Public Schools, Technical High School, took his pre-law work at Indiana University, and has an L. B. degree from the Indiana University Law School.

Besides serving as judge of Superior Court, Room 3, he has previously served as Chief Rent Enforcement Attorney for the State of Indiana, and as Marion County Deputy Prosecuting Attorney under the late Frank H. Fairchild. Brennan is a World War II veteran, having served as a pilot in the Army Air Force. Besides the local bar associations, he is a member of the Indiana Judges' Association and many civic organizations, including the Optimist Club, Speedway Lions Club, the Christian Youth Home Association, and the Indiana Council for Children and Youth. He is a member of the Zion Evangelical and Reformed Church. He has for a number of years been active in Wayne Township Republican political affairs and with the Republican veterans of World War II.

Burglars Hit
8th Time in Year

Police answering a call to the much burglarized Kent's Crossroads Cities Service Station arrested three Westside youths early Thursday morning.

In jail on preliminary charges of burglary are Maynard Herbert, 19, 1010 N. Missouri William Casey, 19, 930 1/2 N. Missouri, and William Johnson, 20, 805 1/2 Indiana.

The trio gained entrance to the station by prying open a window at the rear of the building.

The owner, Bob Kent, 1066 W. 37th, said a cigarette machine had been moved into the washroom and several cabinets had been pried open. An attempt had been made to pry open the pop machine. Kent said the station has been burglarized eight times in the past year.

Gas Storage Tanks Safe, Says Bureau

The giant gas storage tanks near 21st and Northwestern, scene of two fires in January, are now safe, according to Daniel O'Donnell of the Fire Prevention Bureau.

The report followed a demand by residents of the area and the Yankee Doodle Civic Foundation that a thorough investigation be made and safety measures taken.

O'Donnell told the Safety Board this week that "the explosion hazard is practically nonexistent" and that the recent fires were the result of carelessness on the part of Citizens Gas and Coke Utility employees, and improper safety inspections.

He recommended that the city be authorized to regulate such storage installations.

voice, and if I were elected to the Congress, I have but one aim. I would do all in my power to return our country to the principles that made us the greatest nation upon the earth."

He proposed as an economist that debts of the nation are a bigger force in destroying us—equal to the atomic bomb. The nation's debts are greater even than its wealth, and everything the present national administration does tends to increase the national indebtedness, Mr. Bankett stated.

THE INTERNATIONALISTS who have controlled our government longer than three decades have huge investments around the entire world. They have been, and still are, using the nation's resources to protect their investments in areas of cheap labor or underprivileged working people, Mr. Bankett declared.

"I seek a seat in Congress because of the manners of things I have declared here and elsewhere our country must be returned to the principles on which it was established.

"And in serving the right cause, I can truly serve my country and my fellow men in the days I may yet have to live," Mr. Bankett concluded.

Re-Election

MRS. LUCY R. GLOVER

I am again a candidate for re-election as your precinct committeeman of the 23rd ward, 4th Precinct, in the Democratic Primary May 6th. I have been a conscientious and active worker in the party and Vice Committeeman in my home Precinct. I am asking the loyal support of all the Democratic voters in my precinct. You have been very loyal in years past, and I prayerfully ask your support in this effort. I am qualified by experience and ability and will meet all responsibilities if re-elected. I promise to serve you faithfully and religiously in every endeavor. Your cares, problems and concerns are also mine. I am employed in the office of the Center Township Assessor, Mr. James F. Cunningham. MY BALLOT NUMBER IS 60-G.

Social Scene . . . .

By RICHARD C. HENDERSON

Slowly but surely, one sees the unmistakable signs of the settling down to a spring social season in earnest. Almost daily now, at least one invitation a day arrives, each bringing with it promise of pleasantness for the world's most harried and hurried writer. Casting my somewhat jaded eye over the prospects for the season, I am pleasantly surprised to find that local people are showing more and more imagination in planning affairs. As our fabulous Snooper says in "Teen Talk," keep the good work up!

The past weekend was rather quiet for me—somewhat quieter. In fact, than it was for most of you. I was vaguely amused to hear about praise en passant being given to The Recorder as an historical Indiana institution by a speaker for an affair at which the paper was completely ignored! Life's little comedies . . .

According to our Anderson correspondent, Mrs. Madeline Irvin, an Indianapolis resident made quite an impression on an Anderson audience last Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Albert Spurlock was commentator for a "Continental Fads and Fashions" show presented by the Good Will club of Allen Chapel AME Church in that city.

President of the club is a young woman who is practically an Indianapolis resident herself—Mrs. Hazel Minnefield, daughter of Mrs. Mabel Augusta. Mrs. Augusta, incidentally, went there for the program, as did Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Johnson, Mrs. F. B. Ransom and Clyde Adams, and they were entertained following the program at the home of Mrs. Minnefield's uncle, William Myers.

Speaking of going out of town, Messrs. and Mesdames Cary D. Jacobs and Bernard Brent of this city and Robert Johnson, Lafayette, went up to Chicago last week for the district meeting of Omega Psi Phi fraternity. They tell me they had a wonderful time!

Back home here, local Omegas were busily initiating six young men into Zeta Phi chapter. Full-fledged Ques, following ceremonies at the frat house Saturday night, are John Anderson, a junior at Butler University; Jefferson Phillips, a senior at the school, and Fred E. Wilson, Benjamin Johnson, Leon Reid and Donald L. Oldham, local teachers.

Charles E. Johnson, Tenth District representative from Detroit, was house guest of the Jacobses during his stay here.

Mrs. Rosemary Carpenter, having a wonderful time in Chicago at the regional meeting of Sigma Gamma Rho sorority, took time out to send me a very handsome giant postal card showing the Wrigley Building and Tribune Tower at night—how did she know it was one of my favorite sights?

After enjoying the meeting and the joint dance with the Kappas at Marquette Pavilion in Gary, she and Mr. Carpenter (Orval, that is) enjoyed visiting relatives and friends, among them Mrs. Frances Bobo of Chicago, the former Frances Southern of our own city.

Also going away for organizational business were members of the Indianapolis Links, who went to Cincinnati for the area meeting of the national club.

Making the trip were Mrs. J. Lorenzo Simpson, area chairman; James Anderson, local president; Harry Hawkins, Ralph Hanley, Vernon Doyle and Cecil R. Powell.

Incidentally, if you happen to see Mrs. Powell and she floats right by, don't be surprised. With her head justifiably in the clouds, where else could her body be?

The Atkins Flower Shop, I learned Wednesday, won first prize this year among local florists competing with displays for the American Cancer Society. With only three prizes being given for the city in a competition open to all members of the Allied Florists Guild, one can understand how the fortunate winner would be jubilant!

Actually, winning such prizes is not new to Mrs. Powell. This particular contest started just last year, when her shop won second prize. Last year the shop received a certificate, but this year a big, column-like trophy will grace the display room, reminding one of the winning talent possessed by the shop.

With the judging having taken place Wednesday, Mrs. Powell was not sure of when the trophy would be in her possession, most likely following a florists' guild dinner meeting.

The window display, however, is still up, and I suggest you go by and see it! We often need these bits of recognition from others to remind us of what talent we do have in our own community and which we calmly take for granted.

Another thing I learned Wednesday was what refreshing fun it

37 Tables Are Listed as Fifteenth Annual Flanner House Tea Nears

As the date for the 15th annual Flanner House Guild Tea approaches, members of the guild are confidently looking forward to the most successful tea in the history of the organization. Surpassing a goal set by Miss Willie Charles Stephens, contact chairman, of 30 tables and $3,000, 37 tables have already been registered.

And one of the happiest aspects of the table participation is that it reflects the widespread interest of the whole community. It was pointed out by the guild president, Mrs. Lionel F. Artis, "The interest of church, social, civic, fraternal, educational, welfare, human rights and just about any kind of group imaginable has been very encouraging to us this year," she said. "Miss Stephens deserves much credit for the unsolicited work she has put into making the 1958 tea go 'way over the top.'"

The guild feels that the tea serves a dual purpose in giving participating groups a chance to help the nursery of Flanner House and also to build their own treasuries with comparatively little organizational promotion. Each group sells buttons bearing the picture of a Flanner House child and enters a table for tea patrons. Proceeds are divided, with a percentage for the group the guild and expenses.

Already registered for participation are Gamma Phi Delta sorority, the United Negro College Fund, Indiana Hair Designers Institute, Zion Hope Baptist Church, Silhouettes, Marizandas, Old Settlers, Drifters, Altar Guild of Bethel AME Church, Ministers' Wives Alliance, Religious Book Club, Council of Church Women, Angels of Mercy, Social Service staff, Mothers' Council, Second Christian Church Laymen's League and the YWCA.

Others include the Flanner House PTA, Happy Gardeners, Christian Civic League, New Bethel Baptist Church, Indianapolis Council of Negro Women, Garfield Usher Board, Cub Pack No. 448, Jarvis College Alumni Association, Peace Time Charity Club, Woman's Auxiliary of St. Philip's Episcopal Church, Delta Sigma Theta sorority, Marion County Department of Public Welfare, Daughters of Allen, Link-Belt Glee club, NAACP Youth Council, Thirty-Three-X Guild, Cuisines and Young Adults of Scott Methodist Church.

Officers of Delta Sigma Theta sorority. It promises to be interesting.

Mrs. Hester Walton will be hostess to the final meeting of the season Saturday afternoon, May 3, of the Women's Sponsors of The Indianapolis Recorder Charities, Inc. I understand that Mrs. Vivian Terry Moore will present candidates under consideration for the annual Memorial Scholarship to be presented by the Sponsors at the Atucks June commencement program.

GUILD TEA "SYMBOL GIRL": Patrons of the 15th annual Flanner House Guild Tea, to be held Sunday afternoon, May 25, will become familiar with the young lady's face seen above. She is little Miss Alice Hatcher, this year's "button baby," whose face adorns the buttons sold to identify the wearer as a patron for the tea. Holding her is Mrs. Wallace H. Scott, general chairman of the tea.

Kolonie Klub Sets Discussion On Responsibilities of Negro

Attention will be forced on "The Responsibilities of the Negro in an Integrated Society" Sunday afternoon at 4, when the Kolonie Klub presents a public forum in the FAC Auditorium. According to Mrs. Mattie A. Moore, chairman, questions to be answered include "What are Negroes doing?" and "What are we contributing and what are we sharing with other groups toward making integration work?"

Rev. Clinton M. Marsh, pastor of Witherspoon United Presbyterian Church, will be coordinator of a panel discussion on "What Does the Negro Want?"

Discussing phases of the question will be Spurling Clark, pharmacist, economical aspects; Mrs. Ruby Langford, principal of School No. 36, education; Rev. R. H. Peoples, pastor of Second Christian Church, religion; and Starling W. James, FAC president, social.

Musical selections will be rendered by a woodwind quintet from Attucks high school directed by Russell W. Brown.

The Kolonie Klub, a group formed for the social, civic and intellectual development of its members, was organized in November, 1952.

Feter at Party At New Castle

NEW CASTLE—Mrs. Jane Meredith was feted on her 88th birthday Sunday with a surprise dinner party given by her daughters, Mesdames Aletha Ross and Mary Bostwright, of this city, and Maude Wright, Edith Webster and Myrtle Owens, Indianapolis. Among the 125 guests attending the affair at Oran's Supper Club were many grandchildren, great-grandchildren and friends.

Bellefontaine Civic Club Meets Monday

The Bellefontaine Street Civic club will meet Monday night at 8 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Brown, 926 E. 17th. In addition to old members, new ones are invited.

Plans will be completed for the club's participation in the "Cleanest City" campaign.

A. E. Pope is president of the club, and L. C. Smith is secretary.

Clean Up, Spruce Up At Flanner House

Members of the Flanner House Parents club will enjoy a "clean up, spruce up" party when they meet next Wednesday night. Mothers and fathers are expected to attend dressed in aprons, blue jeans and overalls to help beautify the children's rooms.

Marriages

Marriage licenses have recently been issued to the following couples:

Arthur Stevens, 21, 2521 Franklin, and Sarah Butler, 18, 2950 Tindall.

Clarence E. Harris, 31, 2514 Clifton, and Ruby Cheney, 25, 2347 Guilford.

Henry Underwood, 50, 1516 E. 18th, and Leola Beasley, 46, 1724 Sheldon.

Ernest O. McCoy, 23, 2421 N. Capitol, and Norita McIntyre, 21, 405 W. 9th.

Oscar Dabney, 29, 1314 W. 25th, and Geneva Terry, 17, 2626 Burton.

William F. Hall, 19, 522 Spring, and Betty E. Sellers, 17, 2261 N. Harding.

Jim Martin, 24, 2263 N. Illinois, and Geraldine Duncan, 18, 930 N. Lynn.

William Hiner, 53, 570 N. Pershing, and Anna M. Lewis, 43, 911 N. Tremont, and Robert C. Franklin, 21, 961 W. 28th, and Anita M. Ervin, 16, 3433 N. Capitol.

Civic Club Has Scholarship Drive

The Gloriettes Civic club closed its current scholarship drive recently with a program at the Ministers' Wives Center.

Starling W. James, president of the FAC, was speaker for the evening. Rev. A. J. Brown gave the invocation, and Rev. Elmer Arnold made remarks.

Among clubs and business firms represented were the Silver Threads, Bellefontaine Neighborhood Civic club and King and King Funeral Home.

Sorority Plans "Fashion Fair"

Alpha Alpha chapter of Iota Phi Lambda sorority will present the widely-applauded "Ebony Fashion Fair" for benefit of the chapter's scholarship fund Sunday afternoon, May 11, at 5 in the Murat theater.

The "Ebony Fashion Fair," which features nationally-known models, is a 90-minute production and has six scenes with over 100 changes. Freda DeKnight of Ebony magazine, home service director and a fashion authority, will direct and commentate the show.

Mrs. Charles W. Davis is president of Alpha Alpha chapter.

Second Christian Group Has Meeting

The Aid No. 2 group of Second Christian Church met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Amy Douglas, 1225 N. West, with the president, Mrs. Alice Elms, in charge.

Rev. R. H. Peoples, pastor of the church, was guest of honor.

Chatting with the FAC

By ELSA JACKSON

Ninety percent of the FAC officers and committees were present last Monday night for the first of three pitch-in dinners for 1958, the second of which will be held in August. The president, Starling W. James, presented his program for the year, and committee chairmen did likewise.

The group decided on next month as "Visitors' Month." Names of affiliated groups were equally distributed among the officers, each of whom will make personal visits to the meetings of each group. The FAC program and other matters of interest to the affiliates will be presented.

Mrs. Emma McKnight was presented with a gift at Monday night's gathering. Her health and welfare committee members responded so well, she won the prize offered by Mr. James for the committee chairman who had the largest percentage of members present.

Mrs. McKnight, in turn, presented individual gifts to three members, Mesdames Hattie Davis, Hassie Davis and Geneva Thomas, who were celebrating their birthdays.

Through this column the FAC president is making an appeal, not only to FAC-affiliated groups, but to all civic, social and cultural groups in the city to make some financial contribution to the United Negro College Fund. The fund is primarily for the benefit of Southern Negro colleges which are in dire need of help.

Heretofore we have given such a pitifully small amount, that every possible means will be used this year to get widespread community support. Mr. James has been asked by the committee to work on solicitations and to plead with each of you to give whatever you can.

If you don't care to make your donation through the FAC, you can make it directly to Miss Jennie Moton, secretary-treasurer of the local committee. She is now teaching at Arsenal Technical high school.

The Wyleaway Bridge club will sponsor a benefit card party, proceeds from which will go to the UNCF.

The activities committee met Monday night following the pitch-in dinner, with most of the models for the annual Mother's Day Tea and fashion review present. Mrs. Ethel Ryan, chairman of the committee, says this will truly be the best of all the Mother's Day affairs.

The Marizandas club, which has won several prizes for having the most beautiful tables at the FAC Tea, will try its luck at the annual Flanner House Guild Tea next month.

A very delicious meal was prepared by Mesdames Marjorie D. Wickliffe, Maria Jordan, Marie Ricks, Johnnie Warfield, Jessie Eason, Nellie Williams, Gladys Woodfork, Millie Andrews, Ezella Howell, Goldie Jones, Viola Jones, Millie Boswell, Rose Neely, Mabel Strum and Ednie McMillan and Messrs. Melvin and Thurman Howell.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Mary Howard Martin at the death of a sister in Detroit. The remains were shipped to Kentucky for burial.

Gaillard Legion Auxiliary President Calls for "Poppy Day" Volunteers

A call for volunteers for service on "Poppy Day" has been issued by Mrs. Shirley Gowdy, president of the Edward S. Gaillard Unit 107, American Legion Auxiliary. A large corps of volunteer workers is needed to distribute memorial poppies throughout the city on "Poppy Day," when the nation's war dead will be honored by the wearing of the little red flowers.

"This year, grave dangers face our nation," said Mrs. Gowdy. "We will need the patriotic inspiration of wearing a memorial poppy, the symbol of sacrifice made so many Americans that our country might remain free. The auxiliary hopes to have enough volunteers so that poppies can be offered to everyone in the city."

Poppy days will be observed here May 23 and 24. Women and girls wishing to volunteer to distribute poppies all or part of either day should contact Mrs. Edward Bond, auxiliary poppy chairman, at WA. 6-8481.

The vast task of making 20,000-000 memorial poppies is being completed by disabled veterans of three wars, Mrs. Bond noted.

Working in veterans' hospitals throughout the country and in congregate work centers, veterans of World War I, World War II and the Korean Conflict have joined forces in producing the little red flowers of memory.

The work has given them interesting occupation during their

READY FOR THE PADDLE: Members of the Lampados Pledge club of Zeta Phi chapter of Omega Psi Phi fraternity were formally inducted into the fraternity at initiation ceremonies at the fraternity house last Saturday night, conducted under the guidance of Charles E. Johnson of Detroit, Tenth District representative. Ready for

Voice of the Eastside

By MARY P. McGUIRE

"My Lord and My God" was the subject of a very moving sermon preached by my pastor, Dr. F. Benjamin Davis of New Bethel Baptist Church, recently when he talked about Doubting Thomas. "Then saith Jesus to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing."

According to our actions, many of us are faithless. We say we believe, yet many times we become impatient and take things in our own hands. If we could only believe! He is a shelter from the time of storm, sickness, trouble, and He will supply your needs if you have the faith.

But many of us are like Thomas; we don't believe or we don't have the faith. Yet He is the same God Who fed 5,000 on five loaves and two fishes. Try Him!

Speaking of Rev. Davis, he and Mrs. Davis were called to South Carolina last week for the burial of her grandfather. The church seemed lost without them last Sunday. We do mourn with them in this hour.

Funeral services were held last Saturday at Mt. Olive Baptist Church for Miss Mattie Robinson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. O. D. Johnson of 15, Vermont Baptist Church, with the Jacobs Brothers Funeral Home in charge. The young woman of 28 died at General hospital.

Mesdames Charlene Hibbitt, Lucille Murphy and Mae Twines and Lincoln Murphy, a fireman of our city, left last Friday for Cleveland to attend the funeral of their brother, Rev. John Murphy, who had been ill for some time.

The Murphys are well known on the Eastside. Mrs. Lincoln Murphy was formerly executive secretary of the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA. Rev. Murphy has lived in Cleveland for many years.

Mrs. Jessie Jacobs, representing the NAACP in an Eastside church program recently, gave many listeners something to think about, after telling them the great fight is now on in many states.

Many are not concerned now, but as soon as they need the NAACP, then they wonder why the NAACP doesn't "do something." You may be doing okay today, but sometimes troubles strike and you need the NAACP. Don't think you are all right when you're not; as long as our brothers and sisters are in trouble, we are in trouble.

Get your NAACP membership NOW. Don't delay! With the Indianapolis population we have, we should have several thousand advance paid memberships.

Mrs. Mattie Fannings is chairman of the workers at New Bethel, who also include Mrs. Perry Hocking, William Bailey and Deotis Hardiman. They will be glad to pick up your membership.

Congratulations to Mrs. Mary Hubbard Rucker, who heard Mrs. Jacobs and rushed to the Ole Scribe's office with a $5 membership in the NAACP that same afternoon.

At a late hour, I learned that George Head, 2200 Martindale, had died. Funeral services were held last week with Dr. F. Benjamin Davis officiating, while the King and King Funeral Home was in charge. He was an old member of New Bethel and the husband of Mrs. Elizabeth Head.

Rev. James Jones, pastor of People's Temple, will speak Sunday afternoon at 4 to the congregation of Scott's Methodist Church, when the usher board, of which Lynn Warren is president, observes its 37th anniversary.

Rev. Samuel Wright, pastor, is expecting to see all ushers and friends in very large numbers.

Bennie Haynes, 1065 N. Traub, a former president of the City Ushers Union, has returned from the hospital after several weeks. He says the ushers were really on the job while he was hospitalized. He is a member of Mt. Paran Baptist Church.

As a former usher union president, I can't forget the wonderful support given by this fine Christian gentleman, along with the late James Garrett and Henry C. Mitchell, all of Mt. Paran. We all wish Mr. Haynes a speedy recovery.

News comes to the Ole Scribe's desk this week of the anniversary services of Union Baptist Church, headed by a very fine young man, George R. Washington, assisted by Mesdames Annabelle Burns, Lena Marshall, Annie Washington, Nellie Dowdell and Buford Eckel, E. Reid and James Halliburton.

Rev. and Mrs. Otis Nance will be observing their ninth anniversary, with some of the city's best speakers selected for the services.

On Sunday afternoon Rev. Arthur Johnson will be the closing speaker, and a reception will follow. Rev. T. R. Murff of the Bible-Way Baptist Church will speak Sunday night.

Much credit should be given Mr. Washington as a young man for taking such a large responsibility as heading the anniversary of his pastor and wife. Hats off to him!

"Christian Missionary Journey" was the subject used by Mrs. Olive N. Douglas last Sunday afternoon at St. Luke Baptist Church for the "Women's Day" service sponsored by the Ellen Graves Missionary Society.

Mrs. Douglas, who has served as director and organist for the church for many years, left a thought for all women who heard her. The women of the church received her gladly, because she was their own and did a swell job as guest speaker.

Rev. A. M. Hughes is pastor.

Trustees of the Armin Graul Trust Fund will spend the last day of the fund for raincoats, YMCA and YWCA memberships for children living near 25th and Martindale. The raincoats will have the "Armin Graul" name stamped on the backs, and the memberships will be listed as from the Armin Graul department store.

Museum Series Sets Talk on Swiss Customs

Customs of Swiss children will be discussed at the Children's Museum at 11 Saturday morning when Emile Nosedo, native of Switzerland who is now a United States citizen and long-time resident of Indianapolis, addresses a group of children during the "Magic Carpet" hour.

The program will be opened with the playing of a Swiss music box, and Mr. Nosedo will display and explain some of the museum's other objects from Switzerland. Swiss costumes will be modeled, and a number of dolls, dressed in costumes of Switzerland, will be displayed.

Born at Neuchatel in the French-speaking section of Switzerland, Mr. Nosedo came to this country at the age of 21. He has made return trips to his native country, so he is in touch with modern Switzerland as well as being intimately acquainted with the school life, games, clothing and home life of Swiss children of his generation.

Christian Women's Club to Hold Tea

The Christian Women's Outlook club will sponsor a tea Sunday from 4 to 7 at the Ministers' Wives' Center, 415 W. 27th. The public is invited.

Mrs. W. D. Edwards is president.

The trustees were selected from the Eastside Better Business and Civic League, namely Mesdames Haidee Wilson, Annie Mae Horton and Beatrice Hoffield, Dr. L. B. Meriwether and your columnist, the president.

The raincoats will go to traffic boys of Schools No. 37 and 56, since they are nearest the Armin Graul store. Watch for these coats purchased from the Hoosier Motor Club, with Dr. Meriwether as interviewer.

Clean-up time is here again! Make your yard a park. Starting from the backyard, make your yard one of the cleanest. Clean yards count in the beautification more information about the Yard Parks set-up. All churches are being solicited this year to get in on the drive.

"Christian Missionary Journey" was the subject used by Mrs. Olive N. Douglas last Sunday afternoon at St. Luke Baptist Church for the "Women's Day" service sponsored by the Ellen Graves Missionary Society.

Mrs. Douglas, who has served as director and organist for the church for many years, left a thought for all women who heard her. The women of the church received her gladly, because she was their own and did a swell job as guest speaker.

Rev. A. M. Hughes is pastor.

Trustees of the Armin Graul Trust Fund will spend the last day of the fund for raincoats, YMCA and YWCA memberships for children living near 25th and Martindale. The raincoats will have the "Armin Graul" name stamped on the backs, and the memberships will be listed as from the Armin Graul department store.

250 Attucks Students Take Over As School Has Annual Student Day

ATTUCKS STAFF—JUNIOR STYLE: Students occupying administrative positions at Attucks high school's "Student Day" last week were Lillian Broadus, vice-principal;

Ann Brown, principal; Patricia L. Williams, vice-principal; William Southern, dean of boys, and Patricia A. Williams, dean of girls.

Some 250 students at Attucks high school were given double responsibilities on Tuesday of last week as the school observed its annual "Student Day." Starting the day at 8, the young educators reported to receive instructions for the positions to which they were assigned. Going all out to prove their ability to educate themselves, the students assumed their posts as principals, deans, department heads, directors, counselors and teachers.

Key positions on the administrative staff were held by officers of the Student Council. Ann Faye Brown was principal; Lillian Broadus, vice-principal; Patricia L. Williams, second vice-principal; Patricia A. Williams, dean of girls, and William Southern, dean of boys.

Department heads were Bertha Overton, science; Katherine Kelly, foreign languages; Brenda Moore, home economics; Mabel Trotter, business education; Betty Jo McCarty, girls' physical education; Katherine Crowe, English; Claude Jackson, art; William Webster, social science; Billy Hall, boys' physical education; Benjamin Brown, industrial arts, and Eddie Hitchens, mathematics.

The single day directors were Carlena Lolla, productions; Carol Cage, publications; Betty Wilson, nurse; Eugene Fossett, visual aids; LeVern Benson, athletics, and Mary Jean Buckner, librarian.

Counselors for the day were Susan Williams, Sheila Mayfield, Barbara Phillips, Lolla Johnson, George Saunders, Charlotte Woodford, Faye Johnson, Lois Bell, Peggy Garner, Edwin Flynn, Brenda Dale and Isabelle and Isabelle Pollard.

The students were elected by their classroom teachers. Each department head was a senior or had a major or minor in the field in which he taught.

Mrs. F. Benjamin Davis, wife of the pastor of New Bethel Baptist Church, was called to Tennessee last week by the death of her grandfather. Sympathy cards may be sent to 1140 W. 32nd.

THE STOMACH

If you've taken BC, you know it acts fast on headaches.

Now, scientific tests prove you're right. An independent medical organization gave people four leading headache remedies at different times.

ONE MINUTE after dosage, they took a small blood sample from each person. They found more BC pain-relieving ingredients in the blood stream. More than from the leading plain aspirin, the leading buffered aspirin or the leading compound. And other tests showed BC won't upset your stomach.

Get the fastest head-start on headaches—with BC. It's fast—gentle, too. Buy the familiar BC powders, for work or at home. Or get BC tablets, in the handy tin or in an economical large bottle.

Women's Federated Clubs

By RACHEL OVERBY

The all-day meeting of the Central District of the Indiana State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs will be held Saturday at the state club home, 2034 N. Capitol. Mrs. Clara Phillips, president, urges all officers and members to be on time, 9:30, and be prepared to take dinner and remain all day.

THIS COLUMN APPEARS WEEKLY

DON'T READ THIS — Unless you wish to learn about the Catholic Church

QUESTION: Why was Mary, out of all the women on earth, chosen to be the Mother of Christ?

ANSWER: Because she was the purest and most virtuous of all the women who ever lived. The Litany of the Blessed Virgin, one of the most beautiful of all prayers, describes her as the Mystical Rose, Virgin of Virgins, Gate of Heaven, Morning Star, Refuge of Sinners, and Queen of Angels.

QUESTION: What do Catholics believe about the Immaculate Conception?

ANSWER: Mary, as a signal honor befitting one who was to become the Mother of God, never was touched by the stain of original sin. At the moment of her conception she was miraculously innocent.

Although the scriptures do not declare this explicitly, the Immaculate Conception is defined by implication in several passages. The Angel who announced that she was to become the Mother of Jesus addressed Mary in these words: "Hail, full of grace." The phraseology denotes that Mary's soul was completely sanctified and therefore sinless. Furthermore, the Immaculate Conception has been part of the traditional teaching of the Church since Apostolic times.

Pope Pius IX gave this infallible definition of the Immaculate Conception: "The doctrine which declares that the most Blessed Virgin Mary, in the first instant of her conception, by a singular grace and privilege of Almighty God, in view of the merits of Jesus Christ, the Saviour of the human race, was preserved exempt from all stain of original sin, is a doctrine revealed by God, and therefore must be believed firmly and constantly by all the faithful."

QUESTION: Is Mary really the Mother of God or only the Mother of Christ's human nature?

ANSWER: Mary is undeniably the Mother of God. Christ was one Person, not two. He was always God when He assumed His human nature. Therefore, Mary is absolutely the Mother of God.

QUESTION: Why do Catholics have such intense devotion to Mary?

ANSWER: Because it is so natural to them to revere God's Mother and the spiritual mother of the human race. Christ made Mary the special protectress of all of us when He looked down at St. John from His Cross and said: "Son, behold thy mother."

QUESTION: Do Catholics worship Mary?

ANSWER: No. Worship is the adoration reserved only for God. Catholics worship God alone; they venerate Mary and the saints.

QUESTION: Was Mary always sinless throughout her life?

ANSWER: Yes, Mary never was stained by the slightest sin. Although her will was free, like the rest of mankind, she cooperated so completely with God's grace that she always retained the perfect innocence of her Immaculate Conception.

QUESTION: Did Mary remain a Virgin throughout her life?

ANSWER: Mary remained a Virgin always.

QUESTION: How old was Mary at the time of the Annunciation?

ANSWER: Theologians think she was about fifteen years old.

QUESTION: Many theologians believe she probably was the most beautiful woman who ever lived and that Jesus bore a physical resemblance to her.

QUESTION: What does the Catholic Church teach about Mary's conception of Christ?

ANSWER: The story is beautifully told in the Gospel by St. Luke:

"Then the Angel said to her, Mary, do not be afraid; thou hast found favor in the sight of God. And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and shalt bear a son, and shall call Him Jesus. He shall be great, and men will know Him for the Son of His father David, and He shall reign over the house of Jacob eternally; His Kingdom shall never have an end. But Mary said to the angel, How can that be, since I have no knowledge of man? And the angel answered her, The Holy Spirit will come upon thee, and the power of the Most High will overshadow thee. Thus this holy offspring of thine shall be known for the Son of God." (Luke 1:30-35)

Later, when Mary visited Elizabeth, her cousin was inspired with knowledge of the circle by the Holy Ghost and cried out: "Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. How have I deserved to be thus visited by the Mother of my Lord?" (Luke 1:43-45)

QUESTION: What is the doctrine of the Assumption?

ANSWER: The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin is the doctrine which pronounced that Mary was assumed bodily into heaven shortly after her death by the divine power of God. Her incorrupt body was then reunited to her soul.

It was defined as a dogma by Pope Pius XII in 1950, but this definition did not establish a new belief. The Assumption has always been a part of traditional Catholic teaching, and it has been celebrated as a religious feast for 1500 years.

QUESTION: Do Catholics believe that Mary can intercede for them with God when they pray to her?

ANSWER: Catholics have no doubt of it. She is the channel through which Christ showers all the blessings of the redemption on those who love Him. She is the mediatrix of all graces. Mary occupies a higher place in heaven than any other mortal, and Christ would find it impossible to deny her any favor she asks. He showed this on earth when he performed His first miracle at her request, transforming water into wine at the marriage feast of Cana. In order to please His Mother, Jesus performed this miracle "before His time was come."

There is nothing that gratifies Christ more than devotion to His Mother. Countless blessings unquestionably have been bestowed on the world through Mary's intercession with her divine Son.

Sunday Afternoon Ninth Anniversary Of Eastside Baptist Church

The Eastside Baptist Church, 2845 Baltimore Avenue, was organized in one room frame building April 3, 1949 with eight members and Rev. A. L. Williams, pastor and organizer. On the first Sunday, in September, 1956, this pastor and congregation moved into a new $85,000 building.

God has richly blessed us in these nine years for they are marked with progress spiritually and numerically. Many souls have been saved and others brought back in fellowship with Christ and His Church. Eastside Baptist Church takes this opportunity to invite the general public to worship with us in these 9th anniversary services. There will be good preaching and singing every night by visiting churches and our own groups. Please come and bring your friends, April 28-May 1.

Monday night First Samuel Baptist, Rev. Smith, pastor; Tuesday, Olivet Baptist, Rev. G. L. Lillard; Wednesday, Bethlehem Baptist, Rev. S. Dey; Thursday, Sunny Mount, Rev. ## Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Relieves Pain, Stops Itching as it Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations. Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place. And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Graduating Seniors of SHS Make National Honor Society

Paul Terry Batties, 16-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Paul A. Batties, 314 Harvard, and Marcia Warrington, 17-year-old daughter of Mrs. Daisy Warrington, 2512 Boulevard, were among candidates initiated on Wednesday of last week into the Shortridge high school chapter of the National Honor Society.

Both pupils rank scholastically in the upper five percent of their graduating class at Shortridge.

Other requirements, in addition to high scholarship, for membership in the National Honor Society are based upon character, leadership and service to the school.

Fifteen percent of the class was elected to membership in the national society.

Marcia, who completed her high school requirement last January in three years, became a candidate for the honor society in the fall of 1957. She is planning to continue her education at Butler University this fall.

Paul Terry, who will be graduated in June at the end of three and a half years, was elected to candidacy during the spring half of the present school year. This fall he will enter the junior division of Indiana University at Bloomington, where he will begin pre-medical training.

Local Entertainers On PTA Show Bill

Highlights of the Parent Teachers Association benefit bill Friday night, April 25, at Public School 64, Barrington Heights, will be the appearance of The Chandeliers, singing group; Diane McMurray, vocalist; Wilma Burris, ballet dancer, and pianist Arthur Van Dyke and Charlie Hatcher.

Names of additional entertainers on the same bill appear on page 13. A special bus will pick up the group at The Recorder office at 6 p.m. Friday.

Mrs. Sarah Hicks, member of Mt. Paran Baptist Church, remains ill at her home, 909 Camp. Cards from friends will be appreciated.

out some dire threats she has made against my personal safety. I close this column on a happy note by praising Miss Willie Charles Stephens, this year's contact chairman for the Planner House Guild Tea.

Other guild members, not dear Willie herself, have told me of how she volunteered for the major undertaking, setting what appeared an ambitious goal of 30 tables and $3,000. Well, your eyes should be able to see the article which appears next to the "Social Scene" about the present state of registration for the tea!

Many people talk about what they would do if they got the chance, then what they can do all the while they have the chance. Then what they own have done after it's all over if things had only been different! Few of them go on ahead and do a job. My hat is respectfully off to a woman who can back up her mouth with her actions — and I don't care if she does get mad at me for embarrassing her publicly!

Capitol City Tennis Club Opens Season With Banquet

The beautiful banquet of the Capitol City Tennis club. A well-planned program maintained the interest of everyone present. Ellis Diggs, the club's first president, served as master of ceremonies.

Jimmy McClure, table tennis champion of the world and past president of the Central Tennis Association, was guest speaker for the evening. He traced the progress of the club through the years and congratulated the current administration on its outstanding success.

Junior members of the club were presented by Donald Russell, instructor of the junior group. Among honored guests were Bill Randolph, Jack Sutter and Ike Harris of the Beatty Tennis club of Columbus, O., and Mrs. Thelma Wise and Miss Elizabeth Stanfield, prominent in local tennis circles.

Some 60 guests enjoyed the turkey dinner with all the trimmings. Peter Ovelton, baritone, opened the program with the singing of "The Lord's Prayer," and Miss Gwendolyn Holman played a violin solo. Wayne Ross of the New World Players dramatic group read an interesting monologue.

Marion Rice, club president, in giving a brief resume of the organization's aims for the season, promised Indianapolis a "victorious season and one of wholesome activity."

Group singing led by Mr. Russell, last year's president, ended the evening.

Baptists Set District Meet At Terre Haute

TERRE HAUTE — The Terre Haute District Conference of Free-will Baptists will open Tuesday April 29, at First Freewill Baptist Church 1200 S. 13th, Rev. H. C. Maxwell, host pastor.

Rev. F. W. Hughes is moderator. The missionary society will meet Tuesday and Wednesday, with Mrs. D. Coleman and Mrs. F. Calloway presiding. The usher board, of which Mrs. Birdie Scott is president, will begin its session Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. S. Steel, pastor of Mt. Zion Freewill Baptist Church, Indianapolis, will preside over the ministers' conference, which opens Thursday, and will deliver a sermon Thursday evening.

Rev. H. C. Maxwell will conduct the study hour.

The general church conference will meet Friday morning at 9:30, with the moderator presiding. Saturday morning, also 9:30, the Sunday school conference will convene under the presidency of Mrs. S. Turnipseed.

The Freewill League, Mrs. A. Fuqua, president, will meet Saturday afternoon and the youth department will hold its special program that night at 7:30.

The conference will close Sunday with the 11 o'clock message by the moderator, Rev. Hughes.

Kills Sister

neighbors wanted to know. "Peaches" was the only name they knew for the likeable two-year-old. "Was she hurt bad?" "How did it happen?"

JUST HOW IT DID happen no one really knows.

Sims said he was in the front room of the tiny home talking with the children's uncle, Joseph Gates, 44, 2213 E. 24th. Peaches and Rodney were playing on a cot in the next room, when suddenly the two men hear a shot.

Gates ran to the bedroom where the children had been playing. (Sims, crippled by a recent stroke had to move more slowly) and found Peaches lying whimpering on the cot, bleeding from a chest wound. Sims' .38-caliber revolver lay nearby.

In just 10 minutes, the ambulance which Gates summoned arrived, but it was too late.

Sims, at the point of tears—he obviously loved his grandchildren—wondered how Rodney had managed to find the loaded gun. "I had it hidden 'way up under the pillow," he said.

"WHERE'S THE MOTHER?" someone wondered. Police officers were already trying to locate the 25-year-old Geraldine Sims who had left her three children with her grandfather more than 24 hours ago.

Two hours after the tragedy, they found her on the Northside, where she said she had gone to try to get money for food from the father of one of the children. She "would have come back home sooner," she said, but she didn't have carfare.

Neighbors say they had long worried about the children, who were often left alone with their grandfather.

"Why, Mr. Sims just couldn't keep up with them; he's crippled, you know. Their mother doesn't work, so I don't know why she couldn't at least stay home with them," a neighbor said.

Rodney and his six-year-old brother, William, have been placed in a guardian home while the mother awaits action on a child-neglect charge.

Other survivors are the father, James Edward Willis, and grandfather, Israel Willis.

Services were held Thursday in Patton Funeral Home, with burial in New Crown.

AIR-AGE ATTACKS-ITES: Learning some of inner-workings of the country's newest aircraft during their week-end trip to Bakalar Air Force Base near Columbus, members of the Attacks Civil Air Patrol show unusual interest in the problems of life in an "air age." Inspecting aircraft components are Cpl. James Moore, Sgt. James Manning, Cpl. Donald Davidson and Pvt. Clifton Barker. Photo at right catches more of the Attacks squadron—the only such high school group in the city—during a "briefing" session at the installation. They are Pvs. Claudette Turner, Geraldine Moore, Cornelia Gartin, Rose Crowe, Bonnie Westbrook, Violet Evans and Constance Jones.

Attacks CAP 'Weekends' At Bakalar AFB

More than 50 Civil Air Patrol cadets from Attacks high school spent the weekend at Bakalar Air Force Base near Columbus.

The group, composed of 34 boys and 20 girls, attended informal briefings, saw training films and toured the Air Force installation during their two-day visit.

Arriving at the base at 8 Saturday morning, cadets were assigned quarters. After a brief orientation by Capt. McAllister B. Rhodes, project officer for the event, and "chow," the squadron started its tour of the base, including an inspection of one of the base's C-119 (Flying Boxcar) aircraft, parachute loft, weather station and

Holdup. Man Wants Not To Be Seen

A holdup man with a yen not to be seen held up the Hoosier Pete filling station at 22nd and Capitol last Saturday night.

Marlen Munns, 23, assistant manager of the station, told police he was counting money for the shift change in the back room of the station when a man dropped a sack through the open window of the room and ordered him to put the money in the sack and not to turn around.

Munns said when he had put the money in the sack the holdup man ordered him to give the sack to Leon Roberson, an attendant at the station.

Roberson was ordered to put his money in the sack and toss the sack back out the window.

The robber with the new twist escaped, unseen and unidentified.

'No Negro Judge,' Declares Local White Attorney

In protest to the prospect of having a Negro elected judge of Superior Court 2, a white Republican attorney said this week he would run for the post on an independent ticket.

Republican Robert Lee Brokenburr and Democrat Mercer Mance — both Negroes — are favored to win their parties' nominations. Atty. Hall Cochran, 41, 5361 E. 42nd, raised the racial issue because "I do not think integration should start at the top branch of the courts. It should start at the JP level and work up instead of being shoved down the people's throats like this."

Incidentally, there is a Negro in the running for the Center Township justice of the peace office: Deputy Sheriff D.W.D. Hector. According to his statement, Cochran has been promised financial support and help in collecting the signatures necessary to get his name on the ballot as an independent candidate in November.

A precinct committeeman, he is former vice-president of the Washington Township Republican club and has been active in party politics for the past 20 years.

Swimming Pool To Be Given Away In IRHA Week

Member stores of the Indiana Retail Hardware Association, in observing IRHA Week, April 24 to May 3, are sponsoring a contest in which more than 378 prizes will be given away free. The first prize is an "Esther Williams Swimming Pool" size 18 x 36.

During IRHA Week customers and prospective customers may visit the Hoosier Hardware Company, 450 West Washington, and register to win one of the more than 300 prizes, according to the proprietor, Robert P. Friedman.

"There is nothing to do in entering the contest—only sign up, or register," Mr. Friedman stated.

Mr. Friedman is the owner and manager of the Hoosier Hardware Company. He has been in the hardware business 38 years. The store carries a general line of light hardware, including Goldblatt tools, for which the firm is the local headquarters.

Other merchandise includes a general line of sporting goods, home appliances, variety goods, gifts, novelties and a full line of children's toys.

Mr. Friedman also conducts a loan office of business connection with the hardware store.

Chatter for the College Set

By BILL RASPBERRY

Due, perhaps, to the lazy kind of weather we've been having, activities in our town have started tapering off. Or maybe collegians are spending their twilight time at drive-in movies or something. Anyhow, there wasn't a great deal of social activity here during the past week.

As if they sensed the relative inactivity here, the guys at Purdue seized the opportunity to coax many of the local lassies over West Lafayette way for the university's big junior prom Friday. 'Twas a nice one, reports say.

Among those dancing to the music of Duke Ellington and Chico Hamilton were Andrea Thomas, Buddy Penn, Erich Barnes, Doris Williams, Glendora Smith, Bobby Taylor, Sharon Suber, Richard Brooks, Patsy Swatts, Charlie Lyons, Katherine Crowe, Bill Alford, Barbara Crowder, John Malachi, Margaret Moore, Larry Banks, Alice Conyers Emory Turner, Juanita Montgomery and Curtis King.

Who's the attractive Chicago school teacher Clyde Washington was with?

All the gals, except Barbara Crowder, who had to be back for a Saturday night singing engagement, stayed over till Sunday evening and enjoyed the music of Cab Calloway and the Glenn Miller Orchestra.

The influx of girls must have had a telling effect on the Boiler-makers — the guys opened their tight little fists and treated the lovelies to a dinner in the union building.

The big one locally was the Saturday night formal affair members of Alpha Gamma Chi sorority sponsored at the Walker Casino. Sorority every evening reason to be really proud of their second inaugural ball — 'twas a grand success!

The Casino, already newly decorated, was replete with reminders of the hostess sorority — even the candles were green and yellow, the group's official colors. And the tables (with one exception which I won't mention) were wonderfully well-stocked!

The Coeds, Barbara Crowder, Jean Cox Oliver, Irene Stenson, Marilyn Milton and Louella Stenson, were a pleasant supplement to the enjoyable music of Albert Walton's combo. And they made those green sack dresses themselves!

Speaking of dresses, did you notice Kay Grimes and Juanita Taylor's lovely red ones? Or the very beautiful one worn by Esther "I Haven't A Thing To Wear" Quarles?

Introduced during one of the intermissions were the newly-installed sorority officers, President Elizabeth Jackson, Vice-President Christine Huff, Recording Secretary Bernadette Smith, Corresponding Secretary Emma Crenshaw Culpepper and Treasurer Priscilla Simms.

Other members include Kay Grimes, Shirley Holt, Delores McGavock, Myrtle Readeus, Juanita Taylor, Joyce Woods, Mildred Kinsey, Alvina Jackson, Alice McCauley, JoAnne Buckner, Frances Rivers and Ann Johnson.

Barbara Reeves sponsors the group and Vivian Ross is field secretary.

Following the dance, Lucy Temple, my date, and I joined a small after-party and breakfast some of the sorors had. Also at that one were Rosie Cheatham, Esther "Q", Bobbie Brown, Teresa Talifer, Calvin Ray, Pat Williams, Fred Pettiford, Wilma McIntyre, Robert Elum, Alvina Fitch, Barbara Smith, Oscar and Louise Evans, Clarence Gowdy and Betty, Carl and Katie Weeden and Alice McCauley, whose home it was.

I don't know whom to thank, but the bacon, eggs, hot biscuits and coffee were really good!

Marlene Blakemore was feted at a surprise birthday party, also Saturday night, by Jeanetta and Sonja Smith. It was a small, dressy gathering, but lots of fun, I'm told. I had planned to stop in, but by the time I got away from the formal, it was too late. Congratulations, anyhow.

A few of those who did make it include Rosie and Reggie Cheatham, Claude, Geraldine, Chestora and Marvin Royston, Ned Wyatt, Margaret Holt and Joan Davis.

The NAACP Youth Council at last Sunday's meeting discussed some of the segregation problems on which young people can take some constructive action. Most of the talk centered around drive-in restaurants. Later that evening, a few of the members went over to All Souls Unitarian Church to hear a forum on housing desegregation and were guests of the church's Triangle club for refreshments after the discussion.

The Youth Council's next meeting is set for 3:30 May 4 at the Senate Avenue YMCA.

Members of the Intercollegiate club are counting on your presence at their Spring Swing frolic Saturday night, April 26, at Kingan's union hall, 621 W. Washington. Should be a good deal, so why not join us there? Admission to the "dress" affair is just 50 cents, with parking in the rear.

Dave Baker and Larry Ridley have been getting their heads together with 15 other musicians. The outfit is supposed to be a really exciting jazz concert May 7 at Indiana University. Incidentally, this isn't just speculation; I heard the cats work out Sunday at the "Y," and they're nice! If you like Kenton, you should love Baker's boys. Benefiting from the concert will be the Bloomington college chapter of the NAACP — another good reason why you shouldn't want to miss it.

Cute little Lois Davis recently hit Tennessee State and, I'm told, set the whole campus ablaze! Don't you doubt it, either!

Indiana Centralities named to the Dean's list for the first semester included Woodie Carpenter, Mary Ann Hobbs and Henry Taylor. Good deal!

The Calypso club is staging a popularity contest to be climaxed June 13 with the crowning of "Miss Charm and Mr. Esquire" at a dance at the eSate Avenue YMCA. Contestants will be chosen from the city's social and civic organizations.

Wallace Terry was recently named dormitory proctor of Brown University and will serve in an advisory capacity.

At their meeting last week, members of the Y-FAC club enjoyed films during some of the organization's social outings during the past year. The group, currently involved in a membership campaign, will sponsor a courtship and marriage forum May 5 at the FAC.

Speakers will include a doctor, a minister, a churchworker and a high school teacher. All of you who are interested in this sort of thing (and who isn't?) should plan to attend that Monday night.

Several members of the local chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi participated in the fraternity's provincial convocation at Gary over the weekend. They included Malvin McClerkin, Johnnie Jones, Fred Brooks, Bobbie Lee, James Gilreath, Lester Jefferson, Ed Smith and Harold Oliver.

McClerkin was elected provincial historian, and Brooks was selected to attend the national convocation at this summer. They tell me Gary is simply loaded with feminine beauty and that Ken Avington and Rudy Byron are strangers to none of them! Wonder how Doris Hill and Judy Harrell fared against such competition?

Dorothy Burks, much improved after a short stay at St. Vincent's hospital, ought to be back on the job... And on that happy note, I bid you adieu for this week.

White Valparaiso U. Students Visit Homes Of Negro Families

GARY — The Gary Urban League and the Human Relations club of Valparaiso University co-operated in conducting an experience in human relations last Sunday, when 16 Valparaiso students visited in the homes of eight Negro families here.

Making up the student body were 10 women and six men. Five of the visiting students are seniors, four are juniors and seven are sophomores.

Arriving in Gary at 9 Sunday morning, they had breakfast at the Lake County Children's Home as guests of Mrs. Thelma Marshall, after which they were greeted by their hosts for the day, who accompanied the students to church and invited them to Sunday dinner.

In the afternoon the students met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Means for a tour of the city, and following the automobile tour they met at the home of Mrs. Inez Brewer, chairman of the special Urban League committee arranging the visit, for a fellowship recapitulation of the visit before returning to the Valparaiso campus.

THE SUNDAY VISIT, according to Clifford Minton, executive secretary of the Urban League, grew out of a series of human relations panels arranged by the League on the Valparaiso campus.

"This visit is arranged so that the students can become better acquainted with a part of the community many of them seldom have contact with," said Charles R. Webb, community services secretary of the Gary Urban League.

"Intercultural experiences of this sort do a lot to break down the fences of discrimination and prejudice and are an important facet of interracial understanding."

Informational kits about Gary, assembled with the assistance of the U. S. Steel Corporation, were distributed to each visiting student.

Evansville Women Hostesses To District Club Federation

By WILLIE EFFIE THOMAS

EVANSVILLE—Members of the Evansville Association of College Women and the Women's Progressive club were hostesses last Saturday to the all-day meeting of the Southern District of the Indiana State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, highlighting the day with a public afternoon session at New Hope Baptist Church.

The morning session was held in the Sallie W. Stewart Clubhouse, 358 S. Governor, where breakfast and lunch were served.

Mrs. Juanita Brown of East Chicago, president of the state federation, was principal speaker for the afternoon program, and inspiring talks were also given by Mrs. Ora K. Glass of Henderson, Ky., a former national officer; Mrs. Alma Isom of Washington, former district and state president; and Mrs. Edith Shantee, Bloomington, district president.

Also a highlight of the afternoon was the presentation of a hat show by members of the Little Talent NAACP club, under the direction of the Mesdames Anna McCauley and Nettie Fellows.

Instrumental solos were given by Miss Ann Wheat of Douglass high school, Henderson, and Mrs. Virginia Hargrove, Lincoln high school, while vocal solos were given by Mesdames Charles H. King, Jr. and Jane Cole.

MRS. ZENAH CARTER, general chairman of the community singing, and Mrs. Wanda Washington, led the NAACP panel. She was re-elected general supervisor of the district National Association of Colored Girls organization.

Mrs. Luther Hill Roberts, chairman of the Garden club committee, and Mrs. Owen Phelps of the Women's Progressive club presented corsages to the presidents.

New officers elected were Miss Willie Effie Thomas, district president, and Mrs. Cleona Scott Harding, succeeding Mrs. Mattie King as second vice-president.

Re-elected, in addition to Mrs. Washington, were Mesdames Nola Umbles, Washington, first vice-president; Lucille Neighbors, Vincennes, recording secretary; Nanette Carter, financial secretary; Edna Johnson, Bloomington, treasurer; and Miss Waddy, West Baden, chaplain.

Cities included in the district are Bloomington, Charlestown, Evansville, French Lick, West Baden, Princeton, Rockport, Vincennes and Washington.

Working with Mrs. Carter on the local committee were Mesdames Margaret Fields, Ora Glass, Aurelia Bradley, Velma Jones, Musetta Roberts, Lillie Lauderdale, Nannie Carter and Martha L. Smith.

Miss Thomas is president of the Evansville Association of College Women, and Mrs. Margaret Fields is president of the Progressive Women's club.

SENIOR GIRLS of Lincoln high school, other local schools and Douglass high school, Henderson, Ky., were entertained, along with their mothers and advisors, at a "Punch Hour" Wednesday night of last week at Carver Center by the Evansville Association of College Women.

Officers and members of the club formed a receiving line and greeted about 150 girls and their mothers.

Mrs. Alfred Porter, Carver adult worker, was moderator for a panel discussion by Lincoln graduates on their experiences since leaving the school.

Panelists were Miss Helen Tolliver, student at Evansville College and a veteran of the Armed Services; Miss Carolyn Bell, elevator operator at Sater's; Mrs. Mary Moore, housewife; Miss Mattie Miller, student nurse at Welborn hospital, and Miss Pauline Ward, student nurse at St. Mary's hospital.

Greetings were extended by Miss W. E. Thomas, president, and Mrs. Ora K. Glass, first vice-president. Each senior received a souvenir.

Mrs. Wilhelm Perkins was chairman of the committee in charge, which also included Mesdames Irene Saucer, Jane Cole, A. Stevenson and Phoebe Porter.

CAWTHAR TEMPLE No. 118 held Memorial Day services last Sunday afternoon at Nazarene Baptist Church.

Chief portion of the program was given to remarks, made by Richard Thomas, worshipful master of McFarland Lodge No. 5, F. and A. M.; James Landers, worshipful master of Pythagoras Lodge No. 11; Mrs. Nellie Marshall, worthy matron of Zella Chapter No. 17, OES; Mrs. Mary E. Ladd, worthy matron of Elizabeth Chapter No. 29; Walter Griffin, worthy patron of Zella chapter; T. M. Taylor, illustrious potentate of Rajor Temple No. 95, Hopkinsville, Ky.; Mrs. Artimese McElroy, illustrious commandress of Cawthar Court No. 65; Mrs. Cornelia Bunch, deputy of Isis Court No. 68, Past Potentate Tolliver Norris and Illustrious Potentate Herschell Trice.

The welcome address was given by Mrs. Pauline Griffin, while John W. Hildreth, district deputy grand master of the Southwestern District of the Indiana Grand Lodge of Prince Hall Masons, gave the response.

John W. Lagrone, imperial adviser of the State of Indiana, was master of ceremonies and was presented by M. Payne, deputy of the Oasis of Shriners, Rev. M. D. Banks, pastor, gave the invocation, and William Powell gave the benediction.

MUSIC was furnished by the choir of the church and Harold Mundy and Alice Walker, soloists.

The local chapter of the National Council of Negro Women held its "Spring Tea" last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Carolene N. Bell, 627 Chestnut.

The tea was a kick-off for the 50-day "Mobilization Campaign" which is to get into action next Sunday when Miss Dorothy L. Height of Washington, D. C., national president, presses a buzzer on a national radio hookup.

Miss W. E. Thomas and Mesdames Jane Cole and Mattie Potts gave the local membership committee.

REV. BRACIE MOORE, an ordained elder of the Kentucky Annual Conference of the CME Church and secretary of the Greater Louisville Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance, was guest speaker last Sunday morning and night at St. John's Methodist Church during the annual observance of "Women's Day."

Women were in charge of services during the day. Special guests in the afternoon were Rev. Thomas Hoyt and the choirs and chorale of Cleaves Memorial CME Church.

Rev. James L. Dinwiddie, a member of Cleaves Memorial CME Church, was guest speaker last Sunday morning at Zion Baptist Church, Owensboro, Ky., during the observance of the 49th ministerial anniversary of the pastor, Rev. F. A. Smith.

J. K. Rushing of Meridian, Miss., a certified director of Christian education, was in charge of a "Christian Leadership Training Institute" held Monday through Friday at New Hope Baptist Church in conjunction with the National Department of Christian Education of the Sunday School Publishing Board of the National Baptist Convention.

Rev. Cleavant Derrick, Jackson, program was presented at the Liberty Baptist Church which will close May 2. An all-male musical program was presented at the church by L. V. Carter, deacon, sponsored by the Mothers' Board of the church.

MRS. SOLOMON STEVENSON, basileus of Zeta Zeta Omega chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority, conducted a problems workshop for presidents of graduating chapters during the 24th regional conference of the sorority, held last week at the Henry Clay Hotel in Louisville.

Also attending from the local chapter were Mrs. Marjorie Jackson and Miss Carolyn Williams, while the Misses Gwendolyn Williams and Mattie Miller represented Beta Iota undergraduate chapter of Evansville College.

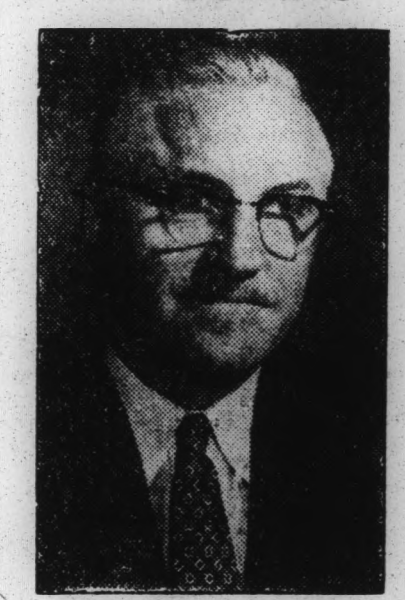

Dr. Charles E. Rochelle, principal of Lincoln high school and secretary-treasurer of the Commission of General Education, Indiana State Board of Education, left Thursday of last week, accompanied by Mrs. Rochelle, for Miami Beach, Fla., to attend the annual convention of the National School Boards Association.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Shearer, 639 Byrd Park, had as guest last week Mrs. Eugene Powell, Gary, attending a meeting of the Indiana Council of United Church Women.

House guests of Messrs. and Mesdames Mayo Palmer and J. B. Meadows over the weekend were the women's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Patton of Benton, Ky., and niece, Miss Dannie Jackson, Murray, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Story, 651 Judson, celebrated their wedding anniversary last week.

Plymouth Man Candidate For U. S. Senate

MARSHALL F. KIZER

PLYMOUTH — Marshall F. Kizer has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for U. S. senator.

A native of Marshall County, he was born Feb. 13, 1907, and educated in Marshall County public schools. He is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame, from which he received his law degree in 1930.

He has practiced law at Plymouth since 1930 and since 1940 has owned and operated a 460-acre farm near Argos.

A member of the Episcopal Church, he belongs to Masonic orders, including the Knights Templar of Plymouth and the Scottish Rite at South Bend. He is a member of the Kiwanis and has been president of the Marshall County Tuberculosis Association since 1935.

Kizer was Marshall County attorney in 1935-36 and prosecuting attorney for the county in 1937-41. He was Democratic nominee for Congress from the Third District in 1944. In 1956 he was elected joint state senator from agricultural Marshall County and industrial St. Joseph County, defeating a Republican incumbent.

FROM 1946 TO 1952 Kizer was Marshall County Democratic chairman. In 1952 he was chosen Third District Democratic chairman, a post he still holds.

Married to Lucille Erwin in 1936, he is the father of three children, John, 20, a student at Purdue University; Carolyn, 17, a senior at Plymouth high school, and Elizabeth, nine.

His brother, the late Noble Kizer,

Down HOPKINSVILLE

Way

By JIMMY IRVIN

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky. — The Durrett Avenue PTA sponsored a religious drama "The Prodigal Son" in the church Sunday night. The Prodigal Son was portrayed by John Majors, an Attucks high school student; Miss Marjorie Parker served as narrator. Music for the occasion was furnished by singing groups of Durrett Avenue Baptist Church and Virginia Street Baptist Church, with Mrs. Laura S. Campbell in charge. The play was written and directed by Douglas Frazier. Mrs. Bobby E. Moore is school principal.

The Christian County Teachers held their last meeting for the school term at the Gainesville Consolidated School Friday. A very interesting program, which included solos, instrumental solos, duets, readings and group singing, was held. Remarks were made by various members of the group using the subject "What this year has meant to me, and some of my class room projects." Prof. Rozell Leavell, school principal gave highlights from the K. E. A., which convened in Louisville recently.

Miss Janis Hensley, daughter of Mrs. G. Hensley and the late W. Hensley of Urbana, Ill., and Robert A. Smith, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Smith, this city, were married April 4, in Urbana, with Rev. Frank Hollingsworth officiating. Richard H. Smith, brother of the groom sang "Because" prior to the procession, and for the recessional he sang "Whither Thou Goest." Mrs. Smith attended Urbana schools, and the University of Illinois, where she is currently employed.

Funeral services were held at Bolling Springs Baptist Church for Mrs. Lila Thomas, who passed away at the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium in Madisonville, Ky. April 8. Those surviving are the husband, Frank Thomas, three sons, James Martin, Benn and Phillip Moss; four step-daughters, five grandchildren; five sisters, Mesdames Pankie Griffin, Susie Moss, and Rosie Reeves, of Clarksville, Tenn.; Mesdames Henrietta Willis and Lucinda Cooper, Indianapolis; two brothers, Martin Kendrick, Chicago and Henry Kendrick, of Milwaukee.

A number of relatives and friends spent a most enjoyable evening Saturday in the recreational room of Mrs. Lillian D. Oldham, attending a buffet luncheon. The room was attractively decorated with spring flowers and other spring motifs. Mesdames Booker T. Street, Bishop Penner, Thomas James, Kathryn I. Northington and Miss Lorene Banks assisted the hostess with the supervision of games and serving of refreshments. The highlight of the evening was the recitation of original poems by Edward M. Bacony and Douglas Frazier.

Mrs. Helen Banks and sister, Mrs. Myrtis Wells Dulin of Madisonville were the recent guests of Miss Geraldine Edmonds and family. Miss Edmonds and Mrs. Dulin were classmates at Kentucky State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Taylor, Mesdames Louise Bronaugh and Esther Majors, recently attended the funeral of Miss Elizabeth Newby, which was conducted in Providence, Ky., last Tuesday.

Miss Nora Quarles of Chicago is the house guest of her mother, Mrs. Edna Quarles Phillips. She will also visit other relatives of the city and county before returning to her home.

Miss Barbara J. Glass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Glass, was crowned "Miss Fashionette" at the annual AKA Sorority contest held recently at Kentucky State College, where she is a sophomore.

During the regular morning services, the Holy Communion was administered by the pastor, Rev. R. White, and assistant pastor, Rev. H. Davis. Mesdames Anna Cullins and Gladys Carbin, stewardesses, assisted.

David Wayne Swann, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Swann, was baptized with Mrs. Gladys Carbin assisting Rev. White. Mrs. Nancy Swann was godmother.

Britt Burks and James Gilbert rendered a duet.

Rev. and Mrs. White and family and Rev. H. A. Davis were recent Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Britt Burks and Mrs. Eva Swann.

Erin and Carey Patterson Burks are out again after recent illness. Mr. and Mrs. Don Phillips entertained the Laymen's League of Bethel AME Church at their home.

Thomas Bryant, vice-president, was in charge. Mrs. Gladys Carbin, chaplain, opened the meeting with prayer, a hymn, Mrs. H. E. Edmonds, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting, and talks were made by Rev. White, Richard Horne, Edgar Swann and Rev. H. A. Davis. Mrs. Mary Lu Phillips reported on plans for the Laymen's Day program, to be held at the church Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Nancy Swann was called to Detroit recently by the illness and death of her mother, Mrs. Emma Mitchell. Also attending the funeral from here were Churchill Swann, Mrs. Emma Mae Swann and Charles Swann.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Barnett, Sr., Indianapolis, attended services at Bethel AME Church recently while guests of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Cullins.

Quarterly meeting services were held at the church last Sunday with the presiding elder, Rev. W. F. Rice, in charge.

Let's Face the Record On Negro Crime

One of the most unpleasant things individuals and groups are called upon to do is to "own up" to faults. Most of the time we will do everything we can to avoid owning up to them; then if the evidence is incontrovertible, we begin looking for excuses. This little bit of homespun philosophy and observation comes after having read the full-page editorial in last week's issue of "Time" magazine on the Negro crime rate and having already seen and heard some reaction to it. Since most of us are not Mark Twain-ish enough to call FBI statistics a pack of lies, we can only start making excuses when we are forced to admit that crime rate among Negroes is disproportionately — and disgracefully — higher than that of whites.

Actually the record is worse than the "Time" editorial indicates. In the FBI's "Uniform Crime Reports for the United States," issued this week we discovered statistics even more alarming than those published last week by "Time." The Negro population of the United States is roughly one tenth, yet in 1957 1,225 Negroes were arrested for murder and non-negligent manslaughter, as compared with 761 whites; 6,158 Negroes for robbery, against 5,517 whites; 15,045 to 8,041 for aggravated assault; 4,108 to 3,092 for narcotic drug law violations; 8,863 to 7,814 for carrying or possession of weapons, and 37,102 against 12,953 for gambling.

If your eyes skimmed over these figures, go back and read them carefully. Study them and think about them and then realize that they probably do not reflect the actual crime picture, which may be worse or better than the statistics indicate, depending upon whether you believe police "pick on" Negroes and thus cause more Negro arrests to be listed, or whether they pass off much Negro crime as being "typically Negro" and thus leave much Negro crime un-reported. It doesn't make too much difference which you choose; the fact is undeniable that Negro crime is more frequent and actually appalling in those of violence.

Who can actually say what the reason is? The seeds may be sown in school days, when too many children discover that they can be schoolground big shots by bullying their weaker schoolmates, running around with tough gangs, resisting authority or learning about sex the practical way. Perhaps the migration of "wild" Negroes from the South does make some difference — although we think it would be interesting to amass some statistics to prove or disprove this theory. Certainly the easy accessibility of dangerous weapons and the easy acceptance of them as a matter of course by too many people is a contributing factor to the crimes of violence.

It is playing the ostrich to deny that politics plays a role in the high Negro crime rate. In far too many major cities there is no responsible Negro political leadership at all. Love of the dollar too often wins out over sense of duty, and gambling joints, houses of prostitution and bootleg dens flourish with the sanction of police from the newest rookie to the oldest chief and of politicians from the most insignificant precinct committeeman to the most powerful county or state chairmen. Where actual graft is not taking place, in many instances white police officials have that "just another nigger" attitude which allows, without checks or restraints from responsible Negro leadership, gambling and vice to flourish in Negro ghettos as all over the country. Violence and killings are almost inevitably part of the overall picture.

We can, if we like, stay quietly at home and watch TV (hoping no one breaks in to rob us), shrugging the whole problem off as a "failure in integration," as the magazine article rightfully says it is. We can reach into our change pocketbooks and toss $2 to the NAACP, knowing that some day that organization will have helped to effect full-fledged integration and first-class citizenship for all Negroes. Then, we can say now, there will be no such thing as a special Negro crime rate problem. Our grandchildren can enjoy being members of a race which does not fill jails and prisons out of all proportion to its percentage of the population — if the family line has not been cut off by some hot-headed Negro who is, after is, after all, only part of the "failure of integration."

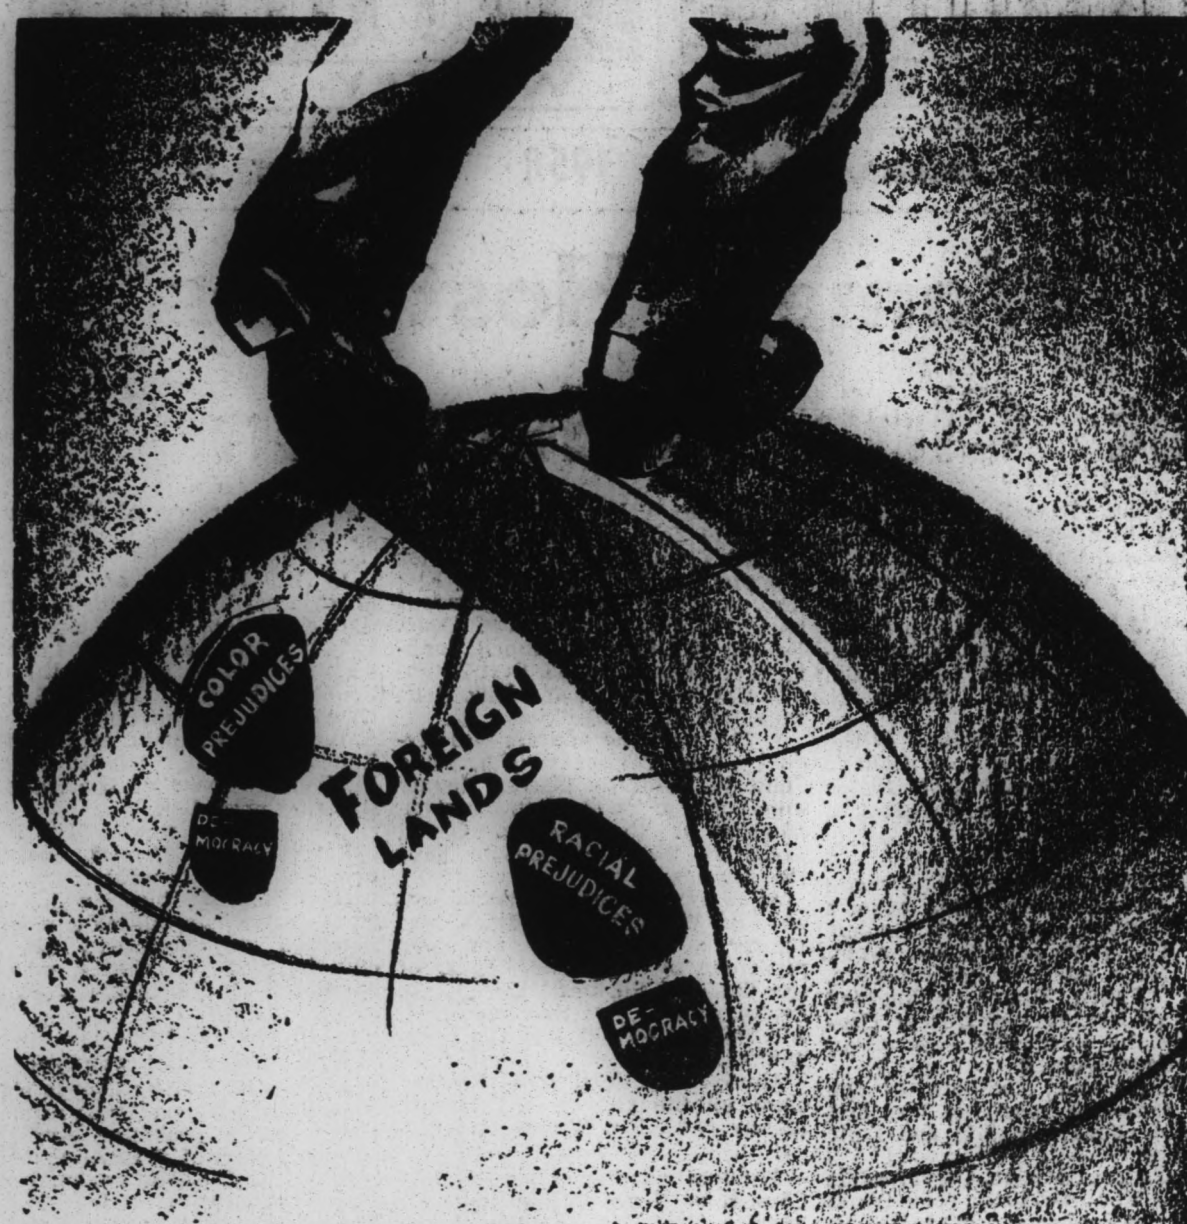

Or we can face up to our own responsibilities as sober-minded adults and realize that there is much we can do, even in the framework of our woefully segregated society, to reduce the crime rate. We can carefully study the whole problem — at home, in the school, at church and in civic organizations — and try to understand clearly the causes of crimes, the situations which breed them and the circumstances which abet them. We can keep our eyes open, along with our minds, and admit that the problem is a vastly complex one. We will have to understand the nature of crime itself, ever considering it in the abstract if possible. We will have to understand the problem of juvenile delinquency which is facing the whole nation, black and white. Probably we will have to discover that even juvenile delinquency grows out of "infant delinquency." Then, after we have learned all this, we will have to go into the study of the Negro aspect of the whole thing.

While not for a minute relaxing in our fight for full integration, we cannot hide behind that smokescreen with our own failures. Right here in Indianapolis, it does not take integration to clean up the breeding spots of crime, whether on Indiana avenue, the Eastside, Southside, Westside or Northside. We can demand and get sterner police action in cleaning out dives, wiping out the carrying of deadly weapons, reducing crimes on the streets. We can recognize the connection between politics and crime, and we can make politically strong to fight crime.

The stumbling-block is that it takes courage. It takes individual courage to report to police certain crimes when one fears reprisal from the criminal. It takes still greater courage to report to officials instances where individual police officers have looked the other way while petty crimes go unchecked or have accepted bribes. Our city does not seem so totally corrupt that we should expect unfit policemen to be protected if citizens show they are prepared to carry any fight through to the end.

Group-wise it takes courage for a bunch of self-appointed civic leaders to admit they do not understand a community problem or that its answer may be frighteningly complex. It takes courage for them to face their own failure in allowing the situation to become what it has. It takes courage for them to go against all sorts of tides in trying to correct a wrong so firmly entrenched, it seems almost like the nature of things. The people in Indianapolis, as in any other big city, who attempt to combat the problem of Negro crime, will have to have enough courage to meet probable frustration on every side. And they will have to have strength to last a long time.

It may be that Indianapolis has no such courageous individuals or groups. We believe it has, and we urge these individuals and groups to gird themselves for action. This girding should take a long enough time, however, for the warriors against crime to study carefully their problems and answers, so they won't make a big splash where the water is too shallow to allow them to swim. On the other hand, the immensity and complexity of the problem should not scare away anyone with real concern for his community and personal safety.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

God Delivers His People

By the Union Baptist Alliance
Rev. J. T. HIGHBAUGH, Editor

(Scripture Lesson: Exodus 11:1-15, 18. MEMORY VERSE: Pt. 106:8)

Jew and Gentile will look at this event with extreme reverence. To the Jew it marks his emergence from Egypt as a nation. The Jews came forth with colors flying, yet without too much outward ado.

It was their Emancipation Day, their glory hour. And all through the Old Testament we find them celebrating this event as their shining hour. I am just back from San Antonio, Tex., where the city was ablaze in preparation for Fiesta Week, in remembrance of the entrance of Texas into the Union.

Why should not the Fourth of July mean this to us? Or, closer, why should not Emancipation Day be a day of great rejoicing to us Negroes? God was just as truly our Deliverer from a great and cruel slavery as He was for the Jews, so why shouldn't we bow down and worship, too?

NO COMPROMISE (Exo. 5:1-11). This is a chapter calling for "no compromise." Look at these compromised experiences; you may go, but not too far.

Many Christians try so to serve their Lord. They say, "Yes, I will go to church, but not too far up front. I am no fanatic. No, not every Sunday, at least."

Look at the next great compromise. "Go, but don't take your young ones." It runs like this: "Be as religious as you will, old man, but don't try to foist your opinions off on this next generation. Let them be themselves." Or, "Don't expect these deep loyalties of the Bible brand out of our 1958 youth."

Yet, Moses asked for male and female, old and young. A religion that is good for me should be good for my Cecil. "It was good for the Hebrew children. It was good for the Hebrew children. And it's good enough for me."

Now, here was the last compromise: "Go, but don't take your cattle, oxen and sheep." Sheep, cattle and oxen were the only commodity of exchange at that time.

Many people today want to go to church and leave their pocketbooks at home. I am afraid of such a Christian. He always plays God cheap.

The story is told of the father who was being baptized, and just before the preacher raised his hand for the ceremony, the candidate cried out, "Just a minute, Reverend. I forgot my pocketbook. It's in my trousers pocket, and I don't want it to get wet."

At this the attending deacon who was helping the pastor said, "Souise him, Reverend. pocketbook and all, for that goes, too."

And it must! A religion which does not carry our money with it is not worth having.

THE LORD'S PASSOVER (Exo. 12:23). This is the record of both the last plague and the great salvation. Moses saw Pharaoh's face no more. God ceased to chide, Pharaoh. The long-suffering of God had made no appeal to the adamant king.

"I will have mercy, too," said Jehovah. "When I see the blood on the lintels of the doorposts, I will pass over them." This was the unbeliever's last night, but for the believing Israel of God, it was their first.

A lamb slain without spot or blemish! Blood! Blood! Blood! For without the shedding of blood there is no remission of sin.

'Twas on the cross of Calvary The Lord was crucified. The mob stood around about Him.

And mocked until He died. Two thieves were nailed beside Him.

To bear the agony.

And one of them cried out to Him.

"Oh Lord, remember me!"

And He did, for He spared every first-born where the blood was seen.

THE LORD'S DELIVERANCE (Exo. 14: 27-31). Note, please, that everyone who was passed over was also miraculously delivered, through the sea forward to the land of promise.

A pillar of cloud by day, and a pillar of fire by night! These are the insignia of our victory, once He has passed over us and we recognize it by the blood, we naturally overcome. Our fathers used to sing:

"I'll overcome some day, I'll overcome some day, If in my heart I do not yield, I'll overcome some day."

WHAT MEAN YE BY THIS SERVICE? (Exo. 12:24-28, I Cor. 5:7). Did you attend Communion services last week or last month? This is the time we pause in respect of the Lord's death and suffering. We hope each week to remember the Lord's death and suffering until He comes again.

Time Takes a Confused Look at Negro Crime

Henry (the American Century) Luce's weekly magazine "Time" last week carried a provocative, interesting and confused editorial on Negro crime.

The article, "The Negro Crime Rate: A Failure in Integration," gration," covered a full page and was replete with revealing statistics about the criminality of Negroes as compared with whites.

To these facts there could be no valid objection, but the conclusions left much to be desired.

The editorial pointed out that in over 1,500 American cities in 1956, according to FBI figures, the Negro (10 percent) minority accounted for 30 percent of all arrests and 60 percent of all arrests in cases involving violence or threats of bodily harm—murder, manslaughter, rape, robbery and aggravated assault.

TYPICAL CITIES mentioned were New York, where Negroes who composed 14 percent of the population, accounted for 44 percent of the male arrests and 60 percent of the female ones; Chicago, 15 percent Negro, but with Negro arrests for crimes of violence making up 50 percent of the total, and Detroit, with a 25 percent Negro population and two-thirds of its prisoners Negroes.

Los Angeles and San Francisco, with upwards of 48 percent of arrests for violence involving Negroes, were listed. The article accuses Negro newspapers and the leaders of such organizations as the NAACP of soft-pedaling the high rate of Negro crime or of offering non-valid excuses for the higher incidence of Negro arrests. It pooh-poohs the claim that white officers are more prone to arrest Negroes than whites and rebuts the argument that the high incidence of Negro crime is attributable to excessive poverty or to recent migration from the rural South.

The piece considers the abandonment of the practice of race-labeling in crime stories to be a factor in the abnormally high rate of Negro arrests. It charges that the NAACP and other Negro groups have pressured the newspapers and politicians to play down Negro crime.

IT CLAIMS THAT the "conspiracy of concealment" helps to blur the causes of Negro crime.

In its crusade to restore race-labeling, the editorial fails to explain how race-labeling would tend to lessen Negro crime, nor does it give any data to prove that Negro crime has increased since the newspapers abandoned the practice of identifying Negro miscreants as such.

And it cites no figures about Negro crime in the Southern cities where race-labeling is as prevalent as the regional ignorance and poverty.

AFTER SUGGESTING that Negro leaders could help out by abandoning "the conspiracy of silence" and setting up programs of rehabilitation in lieu of their habit "of looking the other way," the journalistic magnum opus admits that all the efforts of Negro leadership would be negligible because it is "essentially a white problem."

"And it will remain a severe problem until Northern whites, private citizens as well as civic officials, recognize that Negro crime is basically a symptom of a failure in integration and start attacking discrimination in the North with the same fervor they show in arguing for civil rights in the South," the article continues.

"Unlike the immigrant of an earlier day," reads the article, "the Negro can scarcely ever hope, even in the North, that whites will accept him on his human merits. Negroes are more prone than whites to break the laws, rules and customs of society because they are excluded from full membership in it."

In its concluding paragraphs, the editorial catalogues the discriminations practiced against Negroes and mentions the likelihood of resentment and tensions being produced by such discrimination in practically every phase of our national life.

THE ARTICLE ENDS on the note that the way to reduce Negro crime is to stop slamming doors in the face of the Negro.

The conclusion is excellent, but it hardly jibes with what precedes it.

The calling of attention to Negro crime by race-labeling would serve to set the Negro apart as a social pariah and to give justification to those — including the owners and staff of "Time" magazine — who practice the American art of slamming doors in the faces of Negroes.

The excellent ending cannot obscure the fact that the tone of the article is insulting to Negroes and to Negro leadership. It implies that Negro crime is a responsibility solely of Negroes rather than that of society, as is other crime.

IT MAKES THE COMMON error of making individual acts the property of the group with which the individual is associated through the accident of birth, a thing which makes race-labeling so obnoxious. It is also insulting because of the patronizing condescension toward Negro leadership. The treacherous type of white arrogance marks the lip-service which the article renders toward white responsibility as mere lip-service, and nothing more.

Why the article was written is the jackpot question.

Letters to the Editor Commends Andrew Ramsey On "Joneskis" Column

To the Editor:

The following letter is addressed to Andrew W. Ramsey, editorial page columnist for The Recorder:

I want to compliment you on your stimulating column of April 5, "Keeping Up with the Joneskis."

The facts that you point out here are all too true in regard to the stimulation of the spirit of competition on so many levels of our public activity, merely because Russian propaganda has triumphantly exploited an opportunity, and we are its victims.

Your paragraph close to the end, including the sentence, "There ought to be, and we ought to know them, proposals of international relations, philosophies of education, standards of employment, and methods of dealing with divergent groups of the population which are good of themselves without regard to who does or does not practice them," is tops.

MR. RAMSEY, when you talk like this, I'm with you and many others of our community are with you. Unfortunately, this is the best column I have read from your pen. You usually sound pro-segregationist with a decided slant on every subject you tackle.

With the big problem of the world being an increased improvement of the relationships among all people, I fail to see how you can be considered a part of the cure rather than a part of the problem on many issues.

Here's hoping for more of the positive from your productive pen! (Rev.) Roe Johnston, pastor, First Presbyterian Church.

NAACP Chairman Likes Editorial

To the Editor:

Your NAACP editorial in the April 19 issue is outstanding, challenging and inspiring.

But why dost thou judge thy brother? Or why dost thou set at naught thy brother? For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.—(Romans 14:10.)

The people we work with, those who ride the bus with us—let us look upon them with eyes of love and understanding and brotherhood, remembering in our deepest heart the wondrous words of St. Paul.

Thanks for your cooperation and moral dedication to the Fight for Freedom.

With your help we hope for 25 paid and pledged-paid life members during the campaign, with down payments. You are doing a fine job.

Henry J. Richardson, Jr., chairman, NAACP Life Members Campaign.

Employment Doesn't Show Middle Of March Upturn

To the Editor:

The American people have been waiting for the President's "middle of March" upturn in employment, but as we expected, it has failed to materialize. However, this is no surprise if we will recall some of the last Republican President's statements.

First of all, we know that Democrat prosperity elected Herbert Hoover in 1928. And the same Democrat prosperity elected Dwight Eisenhower.

They both proved to the working people that, regardless of what Republican is in, we will still have recessions and depressions. Then, after the so-called slump hit rock-bottom, Ike comes out talking like Herbert Hoover when he said "prosperity is just around the corner."

People in our community will be in such a bad fix by the time the Democrats return, that it will take another 20 years to build them up again. One man I know of lost his home in the depression (the Hoover depression) and has also lost his home in this recession (the Ike recession).

AND FOR HIM and the rest of other forward-thinking Americans, this is the last time this will happen under a Republican conspiracy, as far as they are concerned.

Also, the upturn in crime is nothing but Republican-created. Millionaire Railroadman Young's killing himself and the husband and wife who killed each other seem to me to be results of Ike's tight-money policy.

On March 8, 1930, President Hoover predicted that the worst effect of the crash upon unemployment would have been passed during the next 60 days. By 1933 one out of every three workers had no job. Industrial production dropped more than 50 percent. More than 3,750 banks failed in just two years, '30 and '31. Farm income stopped, as did foreign trade.

IT ALL ADDS UP to this, that Republicans are trying to get America to quit talking about recession, because the working people believed the people in big business like Arthur Brisbane, who said, "All the really important millionaires are planning to continue prosperity!"

Or Julius Rosenwald: "Comparatively few people are reached by this crash!"

Or Henry Ford: "The crash was a good thing. . . . You wait."

Well, we did watch (quietly), but never any more. The wisest thing that America can do is to call this what it is, a recession with a head start. We must give credit to the unions for their foresightedness in unemployment compensation.

Ezekiel Nardy, chairman of employment, Co-Op Civic League.

WHOOPING COUGH

WHOOPING COUGH, considered by many as of little importance, is still one of the deadly communicable diseases among children of pre-school age. Eighty per cent of deaths from this disease occur in children under one year of age, and nearly all who die from whooping cough are under two years of age. Figures from 1940 to 1948 show this disease caused three times as many deaths among children one year old as did measles, meningitis, diphtheria, polio, scarlet fever, chickenpox, German measles, and mumps, all together.

Whooping cough begins in much the same manner as other infections with symptoms similar to those of a cold, which may continue for as long as ten days before the cough appears. Characteristic of whooping cough is a series of repeated spasmodic coughs followed by sudden forceful inspiration.

Allen Takes AAU Boxers to Junior Meet at Louisville

Fresh from an excellent showing in the National AAU championships last week at Boston, an Indianapolis boxing team coached by Al Allen of St. Rita's headed this week for the National Junior AAU tournament at Louisville.

The junior championships, slated for April 24-25-26, are open to boxers who did not win in the senior meet. The local contingent is co-captained by two fighters who turned in fine performances at Boston — Norman Johnson and Cleo Horton.

Johnson battled his way to the semifinal round of the tournament before dropping a decision to Grey Garvin of New York. Garvin then went on to win the welterweight title.

HORTON ELECTRIFIED the crowd by knocking down Jose Torres of New York, who had never been floored before in his life.

This knockdown, coming in the 2nd round, was the only one of the fight, but the decision went to Torres, who ultimately won the 156-pound championship. He was runner-up at the Olympic Games in Australia in 1956.

The "crowd stood straight up" for both the Horton and Johnson fights, Allen said.

Also making the trip to Louisville are James Harris, 132; Robert Smith, 147, and Donald Lee, 165. Lee lost in the trial round at Boston.

Two more places for the Louisville meet.

Pair Of Tigers Chosen For Team To Play Ohio

Both LeVern Benson and Ed Searcy of Attucks will play in the Indiana-Ohio all-star basketball game June 9 at Ft. Wayne. The Recorder was reliably informed this week.

Searcy also will play in the Indiana-Kentucky series June 21 and June 28. But according to the grapevine, Benson was not selected for the Indiana team that will meet Kentucky.

Fiery little LeVern, who performed three seasons with the Attucks varsity, was a target of daily newspaper criticism this year and later was whistled out of two games in the regional tournament. In statewide voting for the "anti-Kentucky" team, Benson missed by 5 votes and the game committee also bypassed him, it is reported.

Ft. Wayne writers apparently thought differently, choosing both Benson and Searcy to go along with Mike McCoy, Danny Howe and Carl Starrett from Ft. Wayne South Side's state champs. Others reportedly sought for the "anti-Ohio" team are Charlie Hall of Terre Haute Gerstmeier and Terry Dischinger of Terre Haute Garfield.

Several of these boys will be getting quite a workout. It is reported that all except Benson and Howe are also on the "anti-Kentucky" team.

IT APPEARS POSSIBLE that John Kelso, Ft. Wayne Central's phenomenal mid-year senior, also might play with the "anti-Ohio" aggregation.

The committee sponsoring the "anti-Kentucky" series ruled Kelso ineligible because he will not graduate until January.

But Kelso is said to be planning to give up his remaining high school eligibility (he is also a football star) in order to play in the East-West All-American basketball game June 20 at Monticello, N. Y.

"Kelso will be 20 (and thus over-age) anyway in July," a prominent local coach said. (See other stories on this page.)

Alton Smith and Forrest Jones, Jr., recently became the first Negroes to win a major golf tourney here, when they took the Spring Two-Ball Golf Tournament at Sarah Shank with a 69 score. Among the losers was former Walker Cup ace Dale Morey.

About 50 Negroes In Major Leagues

By The ASSOCIATED NEGRO PRESS

The major league baseball season promises to be a good one for some 50 or so tan players on the rosters of 14 teams. Only the Boston Red Sox and Detroit Tigers have lily-white personnel.

Here's the breakdown:

National League

MILWAUKEE BRAVES — Have possible super-star in Hank Aaron, 1957 major league home run runs batted in champion. Wes Covington, fielding hero of the '57 World Series, also could blossom into star performer and improve on his .288 batting average. Felix Mantilla is fine fielding performer and valuable as pinch runner or

GIBSON NEW IBC HEAD

NEW YORK — Truman Gibson, new president of the International Boxing Club following the resignation of Jim Norris, said last week that "no changes will be made in our operations" for the present.

The 46-year-old Negro attorney formerly was secretary of the IBC, which last summer was found guilty along with Norris of monopolizing championship fights.

The IBC appealed the verdict and the U. S. Supreme Court has agreed to review the case. "We will have to wait until the Supreme Court makes its ruling," Gibson said.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL: Terry Trice, Willie Davis, Joe Polk, Woodson Williams, Edmond Brown, Robert Younger, James Morrow, Frank Edmunds, Richard Foster, Nathaniel Gore, Zelle Crawford, Richard Adams, Sylvester Parrish and William Benson (Le-

for triple crown — batting, home run and RBI. Might have rookie sensation in Vada Pinson — if he hits major league pitching. Brooks Lawrence, pitching mainstay; George Crowe provides home run power, and Bob Thurman, useful as pinch-hitter and outfield sub.

PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES — Chico Fernandez, field whiz and a 260 hitter. Team hopes that Frank Herrera can come through at first to plug a big hole.

SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS — Might have baseball's greatest performer in Willie Mays. The incomparable center fielder might threaten Babe Ruth's home run record with more friendly park. If rookies Willie Kirkland and Orlando Cepeda come through, team could be more of a threat than experts predict. Ruben Gomez, Puerto Rican right-hander, might improve on his 15-13 record of last

AMERICAN LEAGUE

NEW YORK YANKEES — Manager Casey Stengel has vowed to use Elston Howard strictly as a catcher this season. Howard hit well in the Grapefruit League. Harry Simpson,

LOS ANGELES DODGERS — Sorely miss Roy Campanella, who suffered crippling injury in auto accident. Hoping for a comeback by Don Newcombe, a 27-game winner two years ago. Charlie Neal considered coming star of the team, and will play either shortstop or 2nd. Junior Gilliam, an asset as a leadoff man, might wind up in the outfield. John Roseboro, young catcher, has to hit to earn a regular shot as Campanella's replacement.

CINCINNATI REDS — Frank Robinson, team's batting star, will vie

Attucks Center 3rd on 'Anti-Kentucky' Roster

Ed Searcy, Attucks' great rebounder and deadly middle-distance shooter, this week was named No. 3 on the Indiana All-Star basketball team that will meet Kentucky in two games in June.

A veteran of three years' varsity competition, the 6-5 Searcy is the eighth Attucks player to be chosen for the annual classic. Only Muncie Central, with 9 performers in its much longer IHSAA history, has had more.

Previous Tigers selected were Howard Mitchell (1933, by popular vote), Bob Jewell, (1937), Hollie Bryant ("Mr. Basketball," 1953), Bill Mason (1954), Willie Merriweather (1955), Oscar Robertson ("Mr. Basketball," 1956) and Al Maxey (1957).

Bryant, Robertson and Maxey won the post-game "Star of Stars" award in Indianapolis, while Bryant and Robertson captured similar trophies at Louisville.

SEARCY IS THE first All-Star in the series' history to have been coached by a former All-Star. His senior year mentor, Bill Garrett, was "Mr. Basketball" when he represented Shelbyville in 1947.

During Searcy's first two seasons, however, he was coached by Ray Crowe, who is now Attucks athletic director. (Incidentally, Ed was the only Attucks player besides Bryant and Robertson to be a three-year starter in recent times.)

Searcy played forward as a sophomore and junior, before moving into the center slot last fall. He has a remarkable shooting eye from the keyhole vicinity and outside, having hit better than .500 from the field through his high school career.

Despite being sidelined by an ankle injury much of last season, he scored 385 points and averaged 18 rebounds a game.

PLAYERS AHEAD OF him in the All-Star lineup are two other centers, Mike McCoy of Ft. Wayne South and Charlie Hall of Terre Haute Gerstmeier.

This year's first contest will be played June 21st at Butler Fieldhouse. The rematch will take place June 28 at Louisville's Freedom Hall, site of the recent NCAA finals. Both games will be for benefit of the blind.

also enjoying fine spring until suffering broken wrist, probably will be retained as utility player and pinch-hitter.

CHICAGO WHITE SOX — Left fielder Al Smith, injured during spring training, hit 2-for-3 on April 17. Manager Al Lopez believes Earl Battey ready to make his mark as major league catcher.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES — In Connie Johnson, Orioles have one of the best pitchers in baseball. If Charlie Beamon could deliver, the pitching would be helped. Bob Boyd, fancy fielding first baseman, is dependable hitter. Joe Durham and Lennie Green, young outfielders,

Indiana-Ohio Series To Start At Ft. Wayne

FT. WAYNE — The first Indiana-Ohio all-star high school basketball game will be held June 9 at the Ft. Wayne Coliseum, it was announced Saturday by the new Ft. Wayne Amateur Athletic Club.

The contest is expected to pit 7-foot Mike McCoy of Ft. Wayne South and famed 6-9 Jerry Lucas of Middletown, Ohio. Lucas' coach, Paul Walker, will coach the Ohioans and undoubtedly will bring his star along.

Ft. Wayne sports writers and sportscasters will pick the 12-man Indiana squad, which will be coached by Murray Mendenhall.

Donnie Elbert, Wynona Carr In Show At Flamingo Club Fri. Thru Mon. Nite

Langston Hughes, Other Noted Stars To Participate In Fisk U. Musical

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (A.N.P.)—Some of the nation's biggest names in music, art, drama and literature are highlighting the 29th annual Festival of Music and Art at Fisk University April 23-27.

Langston Hughes, noted poet and writer, was to address the opening convocation in Fisk Memorial chapel Thursday. Assisted by the Brenton Brooks Ensemble, Hughes will be spotlighted in "Poetry in Jazz" Saturday, April 26, at 10 a.m. in the International Student center.

An exhibition by the celebrated artist, William H. Johnson, opened in Fisk's Carl Van Vechten Gallery Thursday. Charles H. Alston of the Art Students League of New York was gallery speaker at the opening.

Tenor Elmer Dickey, a former Fisk student, appeared in recital in the chapel Thursday.

FRIDAY'S EVENTS were to be led off by noted writer and educator, Stringfellow Barr, who was to lead a seminar in International Student Center. A play, "Tiger at the Gates" by Joan Giraudoux, was to be presented by the Fisk University Stagecrafters in Henderson A. Johnson gymnasium.

he fabulous Flamingo Club will present the fabulous Donnie Elbert, DeLuxe recording star, Friday nite thru Monday, with a special talent nite on Wednesday.

Donnie will feature the songs you love to hear and which have made him one of the most exciting and invigorating stars on the American scene today. His repertoire includes "Hear My Plea," "What Can I Do," "Have I Sinned?" and many other popular numbers.

Augmenting the personable Elbert will be a chorus of pretty girls, Jerry Scott, exotic dancer, Baron Harris, comic and emcee, plus the inimitable Jimmy-Coe and combo, knockin' you out with those melodious tunes you love to hear.

The entertainment spot features three shows nite—five nites a week, Thursday thru Monday. Admission is $1 on Wednesdays, talent nite. Be sure and register Tuesday between 6:30 and 7:30. Show changes every two weeks.

SAM COOKE, the young man who went to fame and fortune with his recording of "You Send Me" and "I'll Come Running Back To You," will headline "The Biggest Show of Stars for '58" at the Indiana theater Thursday nite with two performances at 7:30 and 9:45. Tickets are NOW on sale at Ross & Babcock Travel Bureau in the Claypool Hotel Lobby.

'Naked In The Sun,' 'Tall Stranger' And 'Rock Around World' At Walker

James Craig returns to a starring role in "Naked in the Sun" portraying the fabulous and controversial Osceola in Empire Studios' production now showing at the Walker theater for one week.

"Naked in the Sun" is the violent story of a violent man, the warrior chief of the Seminole Indian nation, filmed in the heart of Florida where the story actually took place more than a century ago.

James Craig gives a refreshingly new performance in this story of a place, a person and a time long hidden in the dark green density of the Everglades. It is the story, too, of the woman Osceola loved—and of a war that was never won.

BEAUTEOUS LITA MILAN co-stars with Craig in her second major motion picture role—that of Checheah, wife of the colorful chief. Lita Milan made her film debut in the important part of a fiery Mexican girl in "The Violent Men."

Sharing top honors with Craig and Miss Milan is Barton MacLane as the villainous slave trader, Wilson, who is in the Florida territory hunting escaped slaves under license of the United States Government.

JOEL McCREA and Virginia Mayo face the fire of a mystery gunman in this scene from Allied Artists' "The Tall Stranger," exciting action drama filmed in Cinemascope and color by De Luxe and showing now for one big week at the Walker theater. They are starred in the picture, heading a cast which includes Barry Kelley, Michael Ansara, Whit Bissell, Philip Phillips and scores of others.

No. 2 Pix With Joel McCrea and Virginia Mayo in the starring roles, some of Hollywood's foremost motion picture personalities have key roles in Allied Artists' "The Tall Stranger," exciting action drama now at the Walker theater.

THE PICTURE, filmed in Cinemascope and color by De Luxe, presents such top featured players as Barry Kelley, recognized as one of the screen's outstanding dramatic actors; Michael Ansara, noted for his portrayal of Cochise in the TV series, "Broken Arrow," and Phillip Phillips, child actor who has rocketed to recent prominence with his motion picture and television roles.

Others in the large featured cast include such talented performers at Whit Bissell, George N. Neise, Jenny Lea, James Dobson, Ralph Reed, Michael Pate and Leo Gordon.

The picture, a swiftly-paced adventure story of a wagon train that faces extermination in a "valley of death."

Sam Cooke, LaVern Baker, Clyde McPhatter, Paul Anka, Head "Biggest Show of Stars" At Indiana

Thursday, May 1

2 Shows—7:30-9:45

LAVERN "JIM DANDY" BAKER will "wow" you with her blues styling at the Indiana theater Thursday nite when "The Biggest Show of Stars for '58" plays a one-nite engagement with two performances at 7:30 and 9:45.

"THE BIGGEST SHOW OF STARS FOR '58"—20 big acts (all in person) of great names will appear on the Indiana theater stage Thursday, May 1, for one nite only with two shows, 7:30 and 9:45. Tickets on sale NOW at Riss & Babcock, Claypool Hotel Lobby.

FEATURED ARTISTS INCLUDE Sam Cooke, Paul Anka, Clyde McPhatter, George Hamilton IV, LaVern Baker, Frankie Avalon, Silhouettes, Royal Teens, Cre-scendos, The Storey Sisters, Monotones, The Playmates, Jimmy Reed, Huey Smith and The Clowns, Jackie Wilson, Jimmy Dell, Harold Cromer, Bobby Marchan, Paul Williams and his Show of Stars orchestra.

SAM COOKE was lead singer with the famous Soul Stirrers, but with his recording of "You Send Me," he became an overnight sensation in the popular music field. Just recently Sam broke all top selling records by having three top hits in the first 20 across the nation.

PAUL ANKA IS JUST 16, and loaded with talent! This native Canadian writes hit songs like his "Diana" . . . plays piano . . . and is a fascinating performer to watch. Paul's current record hit "Let the Bells Keep Ringing" follows close on the heels of his last hit, "You Are My Destiny." Anka is one star that's here to stay.

CLYDE McPATTER ROSE from boy soprano to the nation's number one pop singer. His background includes being lead singer with the famous Billy Ward Dominoes. It is interesting to note that Clyde studied piano and vibes under the supervision of George D'Ann, conductor of the Buffalo Symphony orchestra.

LaVern Baker is an expert in singing the blues, and when she sings them she gives out with a penetrating emotion unparalleled in the history of show business. LaVern's "Weeddee" was one of the most copied records in the land. In fact, many singers both female and male have tried to copy Miss Baker's style, without much success.

THE SILHOUETTES ARE four boys from Philadelphia who made it good with their record, "Get A Job" . . . and they certainly did get jobs! . . . More than they could handle. And though the boys' current release is titled "Headin' For the Poorhouse," it certainly doesn't apply to them. In fact, the boys have plans for the future . . . they're saving their dough to go into the restaurant business.

Don't miss this great attraction at the Indiana Thursday, May 1, for one nite only with two shows at 7:30 and 9:45 p.m. For choice seats buy your tickets NOW at Riss & Babcock in the Claypool Hotel lobby.

Ivory Joe Hunter, Noted Blues Singer, And Star-Studded Show At Cotton Club

Ivory Joe Hunter, who heads the stage show at the new Cotton Club Friday thru Monday, is probably the only musical bookkeeper in the world. The respected interpreter of the blues and boogie owns a ledger which is as heavy as that of a big business concern. In it are listed what Ivory Joe calls his "songs receivable."

Writer of more than 750 songs of the blues, the boogie and boogie varieties, Ivory Joe has amassed a roster of original tunes which would not doubt amaze the great Irving Berlin.

Ivory Joe will feature such songs as "I Almost Lost My Mind," "I Need You So," "It's a Sin," "I Thought I Had Loved (Until I Met You)," "I Get That Lonesome Feeling" and many others.

THE STAR-STUDED floor show will include the Twilights, originally the Lamplighters; Ramarr Cerece, artistic song stylist; Val Grey, emcee, and music by The Escapades. Plenty of blues, lots of shaking, comedy, singing and dancing.

Spacious floor space for public dancing from 9 till 2 a.m. The Club specializes in suppers served from 5 p.m. till 2. Three shows nightly. Come out and bring your friends and enjoy a real good show in a congenial atmosphere.

Veleros Ball To Crown Queen At IBEW Hall Friday, May 2

It'll be swingtime in springtime at the Veleros ball scheduled for Friday night, May 2, at the IBEW Hall, 3518 E. Michigan. Dishing out those jumpy tunes will be the celebrated Larry Liggett and his sensational dance combo.

Highlight of the dance will be the crowning of a queen, selected from a bevy of pretty contestants vying for the supreme honor of "Miss Velero" at the ritz affair.

Chairman of the gala spring dance is LeRoy Robert Quarles II, who cordially invites the general public to come out and enjoy the festivities during the evening and meet their friends from all sections of the city.

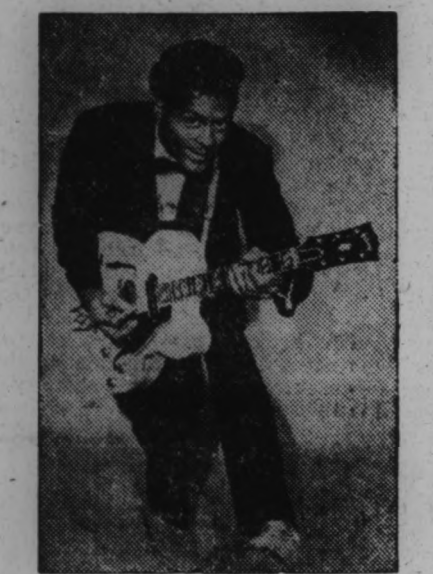

Tickets are on sale at The Recorder, Ross & Babcock Travel Bureau, Doyle's Eat Shop, Clowns' Playhouse, Melody Times record shop, Embers Cafe and Casa Blanca cafe. Admission is $1.65.

YOUNG VOCALIST . . . James E. Churchwell is one of Naptown's youngest rock 'n' roll singers, who really is on the upbeat in local musical circles. . . . The young man is a former church singer and is making a bid for the big time in song. He'll appear on the bill at School 64 this Friday evening, under the sponsorship of the school's PTA.

Allan Freed's "Big Beat" Plays Evansville Tues. Nite, April 29

Allan Freed's "Big Beat" with 17 top attractions, four great bands and 60 stars will play the Coliseum in Evansville, Tuesday night, April 29.

CHUCK BERRY

29. Hours for the stage show and dance are from 8 till 2. This show will not play Indianapolis this season, according to the promoter of the dance.

This is one of the biggest and best shows on the road and is drawing capacity crowds everywhere. Starting in the musical package are such names as Jerry Lee Lewis and band, featuring "Breathless," "Great Balls of Fire," etc.; Buddy Holly with "I'm Going to Love You Too"; The Crickets with "Maybe Baby," "Oh Boy"; Chuck Berry with "Sweet Little 16," "Rock 'n' Roll Music"; Frankie Lyman chirpin' "Thumb, Thumb"; The Diamonds with "The Stroll"; Danny and the Juniors getting off with "At the Hop"; Billie and Lili with "La Dee Dah"; Bill Ford and the Thunderbirds; The Chantels with "Maybe."

Allan Freed and his Choral Records Big Rocking Band, starring Sam (the man) Taylor and the new hit "Big Guitar"; Dickie Doo and the Don'ts in "Click-Click"; Larry Williams and orchestra; Screamin' Jay Hawkins in "I Put a Spell on You"; The Pastels with "Been so Long"; Jo Ann Campbell with "Wait a Minute," plus Ed Townsend sending you with "For You My Love."

Remember, all stars in person at this great stage show and dance with reserved seats at $2, general admission $2.50 and teenagers under 16, 42¢. Tickets on sale at Woods 4th Street drug store in Evansville. Everybody welcome. Don't miss it. . . . It's a WOW!

Green Pastures Earns Famed Emmy Award in TV Cavalcade

NEW YORK CITY (AP)—The star-studded, entertainment-packed EMMY AWARDS took place last week, when the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences presented the tenth annual awards ceremonies live from New York and Los Angeles over the NBC Network.

The gala dinner-dance and telecast was moved in New York from the Seventh Regiment Armory to NBC's eighth floor studios, to insure the highest possible program quality. In Los Angeles, nominees and Academy guests celebrated at the Coconut Grove of the Hotel Ambassador.

"Green Pastures," an award winner, was among the best directed one-hour or more shows. It starred William Warfield. Ed Sullivan, president of the National Academy, made the presentations.

MUSICAL UPBEAT

By BOB WOMACK

By BOB WOMACK EDITOR'S NOTE: Due to lack of space on the theatrical page, we have been unable to bring you the "Musical Upbeat" each week. However, thanks for your letters, phone calls, etc. wanting to know what's happenin' to the "Beat." We try to bring you the latest in the local and national musical front. So, dig us whenever we appear, won't you?

MORE MUSIC BOUGHT: If the current trend continues, it is estimated that the public will spend nearly $400,000,000 for phonograph records in 1958. Each of the past ten years has seen a 20-25 percent expansion in the industry, indicating the staggering 400-million dollar total for this year. The rapid expansion has been credited to "leeronic improvements (hi-fi) and better merchandising methods."

way musicals, long regarded as a potent source for hit songs, failed to produce one best selling single record during 1957. This fact is especially disturbing to the music business in view of the fact that many of the shows had an extensive number of single recordings by such top names as Tony Bennett, Doris Day, Jo Stafford, Vic Damone and Sammy Davis, Jr. Movies, on the other hand, turned out several smash hits in spite of box office slumps. Included in the Hollywood hits were several by Elvis Presley, two by Johnny Mathis, and such tunes as "Around the World," "Fascination," and "Tammy." Television managed to establish a few hits including Tommy Sands' "Teenage Crush," Ricky Nelson's "Teenager's Romance" and Jill Corey's "Love Me to Pieces."

AMERICAN JAZZ MUSICIANS, who seem to have found a "home away from home" in Europe, will be moving in healthy bunches across the Atlantic again this year. Jazz impresario Norman Grenz scheduled "An Evening With Ella Fitzgerald and the Oscar Peterson Quartet" which began their tour in Paris on April and will kick off his jazz at the Philharmonic tour on May 2. Signed for the JATP tour are Stan Getz, Sonny Stitt, Roy Eldridge, Coleman Hawkins and Dizzy Gillespie. The unit also plans to appear at the World Fair in Brussels, Belgium, under the auspices of the State Department, during June Granz will also send the Benny Goodman orchestra to the Continent next fall.

ON THE LOCAL FRONT: The musicians were shocked to learn of the death of James "Smitty" Summers, 88'er who died in Detroit last week. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the Jacobs Brothers Funeral Home. For the last few years "Smitty" was a featured artist at some of Detroit's finest spots. He also was one of the best piano-men in the Midwest, having worked with almost all of the local combos. "Mr. Piano-Man" will be missed by all who knew him. He was a great musician and friend in my book.

The sensational Harold Malone, 88'er, is currently playing with drummer-man Don Cuzzort and his trio at the Blue River Inn down Shelbyville-way six nites a week. Why was bandleader Larry Liggett fined $50 by the musicians' union for speaking up for the local septia musicians? . . . Your guess is as good as mine until we know the real facts with regards to this situation. . . . Rudy and his House-Rockers still the talk of the Harmony Club, where the cats are appearing nightly. Don't forget to dig the one and only Flo Garvin now at Junior's Lounge. She is singing and playing the tunes that you like to hear. You wanta believe me when

"Run Silent, Run Deep" Starring Gable - Lancaster Features Top Negro Actor, Joel Fluellen At Loew's

"RUN SILENT, RUN DEEP." United Artists' adventure drama of World War II submarine warfare starring Clark Gable and Burt Lancaster, gives Negro actor Joel Fluellen, his best film role to date. As Bragg, a torpedo man serving Commander Richardson (Gable) and his executive officer Jim Bledsoe (Lancaster), Fluellen is in the middle of the most violent and authentic undersea battle scenes ever brought before the Hollywood cameras.

The picture starts Thursday, May 1, at Loew's theater.

"RUN SILENT, RUN DEEP" a Hecht, Hill and Lancaster production, is the story of violent ocean warfare in the Japanese waters of the Pacific waged during World War II and the bitter personal conflict between the two men in command.

Richardson, having lost his own submarine during a raid on Japan's Bungo Straits, assumes command of the USS "Nerka" for another mission to the dangerous waters. He incurs the antagonism of Bledsoe, who had expected to command the "Nerka" following an injury to its commander.

Richardson finally gains the confidence and respect of his men after a heroic series of actions deep in Japanese home waters.

FLUELLEN IS ABOARD the "Nerka," a fleet submarine, in reality the Navy's "USS Redfish." During World War II the "Redfish" sank thousands of tons of Japanese shipping as well as a Japanese aircraft carrier.

Fluellen got his first film break in "The Jackie Robinson Story." He came to Hollywood from Broadway where he scored in "Deep Are The Roots." The young actor has appeared in many television shows.

Described as a man of outrageous talent, Fluellen is also a singer and once was with the Johnson choir. He also excels as a fine sculptor, singer, skilled painter, director and writer. Fluellen is probably best known as Enoch in last year's film drama "Friendly Persuasion."

In his 30-plus years, Joel Fluellen has gone a long distance from his birthplace in Monroe, La., and his original training as a social worker at the University of Chicago to his role in "RUN SILENT, RUN DEEP."

JOEL FLUELLEN (right), Broadway-TV-Hollywood acting veteran, plays a submarine torpedo man in Hecht-Hill-Lancaster's "Run Silent, Run Deep," World War II action drama opening Thursday, May 1, at Loew's theater. Here Fluellen listens as the sub's executive officer, Burt Lancaster, comes to the defense of their commander, played by Clark Gable.

Local Entertainers At School 64 In Benefit Bill Friday Nite

Several local entertainers will appear on the Parent Teachers Association benefit program at Public School 64 Friday night, April 25.

Included in the group are such well known performers as Mopps

Marshall, guitarist, singer and dancer; The Madison Sisters, singing duo; Preston Johnson, vocalist; The Orchids, The Silk Tones, singing groups; James E. Churchwell, rock 'n' roll vocalist; Melvin Bell and his Be-Boppers, song and dance group; The Layettes and the Teen-Tones, well known young singing groups, and other acts.

All entertainers will leave from The Recorder office Friday evening at 6:15 for a breakfast dance at the unit in jam sessions at the Brass Rail Tavern. . . . Bob Womack and the BobCats All-Stars under the direction of Bus Williams will invade Connersville on May 10 for a breakfast dance. The affair will be held at the Roller Rink located on Highway 44. Mopps—1 a.m. till 5 a.m. Watch this column for other information.

At this writing, Albert "Teena" Williams, popular entertainer, is no longer confined at the Flower Mission Hospital. He has been moved to Sunnyside. We understand that the Cat is doing fine, and would like for his many friends to write and dig him. The address is R. R. 12, Box 233, or you can call LI. 6-0002 and talk direct to him. . . . Here's hoping that you will be up and around real soon, my friend. The musicians, etc. are all pulling for you.

I tell you these things. The young lady has what it takes to move you. Dig her sometime. Sid Valentine, trumpet and bandleader, waiting with Doris Stokes at the her unit in jam sessions at the Brass Rail Tavern. . . . Bob Womack and the BobCats All-Stars under the direction of Bus Williams will invade Connersville on May 10 for a breakfast dance. The affair will be held at the Roller Rink located on Highway 44. Mopps—1 a.m. till 5 a.m. Watch this column for other information.

MAKE STEREODISC: A Stereodisc, the first conventional commercial pressing of a stereophonic long-playing phonograph record, produced by Audio Fidelity, is now available. Featured on the disc is one of the label's best sellers. The Dukes of Dixieland, on one side, with Railroad Sounds on the other. This record is a prototype of Audio Fidelity Stereodisc records to follow. Sidney Frey, president of Audio Fidelity, said that since the disc is a commercial pressing, they will be able to be turned out in volume to meet the expected public demand.

The new Stereodisc is a compatible disc. It can be played monaurally on any type of system and will be able to be played binaurally as soon as stereo cartridges are made available to the mass market. Until such cartridges are made available, the customer will be able to play this disc monaurally.

Accuses U. S. Of Apologizing For Race Bias

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Herman Talmadge (D-Ga.) has accused the state department of "apologies for racial segregation" in the South, in the U.S. exhibit at the Brussels World Fair. In a letter to Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, Talmadge said he was "shocked" to read that the planned exhibits will include a series of three on the subject "American Idealism in Action," sponsored by Fortune, Time and Life magazines. The exhibit in question, a study in self-criticism, deals in part with race relations. It describes the problems, means being used to solve them, progress in the area and hoped-for solutions. Talmadge called the state department's participation in the project "a gross insult" to conscientious Southerners. "It amounts to a repudiation by the Department of State of its constitutional responsibility to represent before the world the best interests of all Americans regardless of their belief, persuasion or place of residence." Talmadge said the exhibits "seek to show in the worst possible light those states and regions of our country in which segregated society has proved to be in the best interests of all races concerned."

"Sidelights" . . . . . business, industry and labor

By WM. A. CHAMBERS

B. F. SIMMONS of the B. F. Simmons Home Appliances & Furniture Co., 3360 N. Illinois, invites all old customers or shoppers with spring and summer plans for new appointments or replacements in their homes to visit one of the firm's two Northside stores.

The B. F. Simmons firm observed its 23rd anniversary in recent months with a store-wide sale of general home appliances and furnishings. The sale was followed with replenishing of many stock items with some of the most modern general furnishings appealing to the most discriminating home-makers.

The two stores offer a full line of the most celebrated home furnishings, furniture and home appliances, floor coverings, etc. Terms of purchase can be arranged generally to fit the budget of any prospective buyers of quality home furnishings.

SPURLING CLARK, proprietor of Clark's Prescription Pharmacy, 2722 Northwestern, and the Clark Pharmacy at 317 W. 30th, stated recently that through the range of automatic shipments or receipts of pharmaceuticals and allied drug products, name-brand sundries, etc., the most modern drugstore may indicate upward of 3,000 items on its periodical invoices.

Mr. Clark's two pharmacies boast the very latest in modern appointments or facilities for service or merchandising. The store on Northwestern includes among other appointments one of the most modern lunch counters in its area. Services include fountain drinks, hot and cold sandwiches of every imaginable type or variety, luncheons and regular noon-day meals. An alert, enterprising young business man, Mr. Clark has operated his own drugstore over a period of more than a decade.

SHOOLEM ETTINGER, president of the Leon Tailoring Co., 253 Massachusetts, is likely personally known by more people of the city than any other head of any downtown old established business organization. Members of his family, past and present, have been makers of men's wearing apparel in the city longer than a half century.

The tailoring firm makes men's overcoats, suits, trousers, formal wear and everything in sports clothes. The store also carries a full line of ready-to-wear garments for men, including sportswear. The line of goods offered includes quality merchandise in various price ranges on tailored garments and ready-to-wear apparel.

Mr. Ettinger, a native of the city, was born on the downtown Westside. He attended local schools and served an apprenticeship in the garment-making trade on his way up to leadership of his widely-known business firm. As a business executive he was a pioneer in promotion of the spirit and fact of Fair Employment Practices. Several Negro people, including an office administrative assistant, garment finishers and others employed in appreciable jobs in the offices, store and factory, are on the firm's payroll.

ANDREW D. FOSTER, president of the Foster Hotels, Inc., is an easy-going, alert and enterprising young business man who contends that the future holds fair promises for any person with the spirit of adventure and ordinary ability to learn and do things.

Enterprises headed by Mr. Foster include hotels at 2154 N. Illinois, 511 N. Illinois, 31 W. 22nd and several representative apartment buildings.

Mr. Foster says the several Foster Hotel accommodations are "home, away from home" for the traveling public. A sober business man, he also is head of the Foster Trucking Co., another corporation. Persons claiming direct knowledge of his business operations venture that his enterprises are worth more than a quarter-million dollars. He has been in the hotel business about 15 years.

Teen Talk

By THE SNOOPER

What is it that makes a Naptown teenager's life worth living? You guessed it — "Teen Talk"! What would life be in this happy little burg if you didn't know that at the end of every week you could get Indiana's Greatest Weekly with Indiana's Greatest Column and find out what all your aces were doing. You may even find out what YOU'RE doing yourself!

But enough of this suspense . . . On with the column!

Doris Ferguson and Richard Johnson have finally found true love — with each other. I hear that DeWayne Smith is just losing his cool over Katherine Clark. How 'bout this, DeWayne? . . . Esther Parson, is it true that you would give the world just to have a chance with the handsome Ernest Stennis? . . . Hey, Willie McCraw, I hear that you have been cutting out on Sylvia Parson for a cute little chick named Carolyn Jackson, but I hear that her one and only is Calvin Schaffer.

Dig, Sylvester Dunn, is it true that you and cute little Cassandra Anderson are trying to win each other's love back again? Keep trying, kids, because you made a charming twosome. . . Dig, Alene Livingston, you had better lighten your grip on Earl Cook, because he is starting to have eyes for Mary Jo Sales. . . Gerald Graves, I hear that you and Joyce Watkins are trying hard to be the coolest lovers in Naptown, but you'll have to do better to beat that dizzy twosome of Calvin Schaffer and Carolyn Jackson.

Beverly "Miss Tuff" Henchie has Kenneth Smith doing everything possible in his conquest for her love. . . Nina Adams, when are you going to wake up and live and give one of these nice-looking boys a chance? . . . Charlestine Gaines, when are you going to stop being so secretive and give us the name of your lover boy?

Go back and check your record, Gerald Wallace, because word is being spread among the female set that "true love" wasn't made for you. . . Say, Bobby Tolden, is it time you stopped playing the role of the "lone wolf" and settled down with one of these cute little dolls.

A LITTLE BIRD TOLD ME that Owen Young has lost his heart to Linda Boyd, but she is having a hard time trying to choose between Jesse Long and Billy Williams, and he isn't in the picture at all. . . Curtis Watkins, I was told to inform you that you'd better quit playing around and choose between Elaine Allen and Norma Coleman before it's too late and you'll be left with none. . . I hear that Robert Tolden is steady losing Carol Artis to Phillip Radford. What's to this, Robert?

William Montgomery, if it is true that you really kill for Mary Foust, you had better convince her quick because John King says he is going to win her first losing Thad "Pie" Charleston, why don't you stop being square business and give one of these cute girls a chance? I hear that they all are begging. . . Say, Dickie Hinkle, who is the lucky girl in your life?

Dig, Darrell Johnson and Roland Seymore, I was told to tell you that all the girls at Douglass Center really dig the way you dance.

IS IT TRUE that Flora Davenport is singing "You can make it if you try" to Johnnie Milton? . . . Would someone let me in on the haps between Corria Davenport and "Skip"? . . . I hear that Billy Richardson is now singing "Could this be magic" to Teresa Wade, who in turn is singing, "Maybe. . . Hey there, Beverly Thurman, I hear you still have a flame burning in your heart for Steven Jones. Why don't you go ahead and tell him, instead of keeping it to yourself? . . . Gwendolyn Hubbard, I hear that a certain stud by the name of "Tony" has you on the top of his list. Does this mean anything to you?

Georgia Phillips, why did you break John King's heart by quitting him and leaving him to face this cruel old world all by himself?

Arthur Carter, who is this girl you just gave your heart to? Could her name be Mary Currie? . . . Hey, Dorothy Murphy and Anna Bailey, why don't you two quit fussing over Louis Drane, who by the way has another Eastside girl on his mind? . . . Herchell Simms, who is this Eastside chick who has you running around in circles?

Chicky Robertson, you seem to think that "the best lives West" since you met Bob Parcell. . . Is it true that a certain Southside girl has her eyes on Eugene Williams? . . . Information Please! . . . It is true that Patty Poindexter and Ben Bacon have called it quits? . . . Pauline Cheatham, have you turned your eyes back to Michael Hopkins yet? . . . Debby Hannon, I hear your heart is still for Eugene Williams. If so, what has happened to you and Bill Brannon? . . . Thomas Howard, who is this cute Southside chick that you are supposed to be talking to? Let us in on your secret.

COULD IT BE that Joe Trammmer found out it doesn't pay to play around, and has settled down? . . . Willie Lewis, what will Anna Woods say about you playing around with Faye Tottle and Delores Walker? . . . Larry Phillips, triangles aren't nice. Why not decide between Barbara Carpenter and Doris Jean? . . . Sallie Hexter, have you lost your charm or are you keeping your love a secret? . . . Donald "Duck" Jones, a cute chick over at Attucks wishes you would look her way and take notice. . . Say, Pamela Palmer, have you captured James Robertson's heart yet? . . . I hear that Charles "Pretty Boy" Bellamy has taken Corine "Coco" Stepp away from James Davis. What happened, James, are you slipping? . . . Ethel Holland and Winfred Rowlette are strictly making the most of things. . . Mona Whitaker, it looks as though you and Milton Moore have the everlasting type of love. . . Marva Cooksey, haven't you found a boy friend yet? Well — as the saying goes, good things come to those who wait.

CHARLES DAVIS and Annie Shannon are not going so strong. It seems as if there is a third party present. . . Floyd Wooten and Sandra Garrett are really cutting rugs these days. They are real cool. . . Say, Willie Carlisle, who is the chick on the third floor at Attucks who seems to have captured your heart completely? . . . Kathleen Crawford, does your one and only go to Cathedral high school? . . . I hear that the friendship between Robert Black and Martha Richardson is blossoming out into true love.

Harvey Eliot and Beverly Young have finally ended their visit to Cloud No. 9. . . Say, Lillian Washington, are you hip to the fact that Emmett Hill steady kills for you? If so, why not give him a chance? . . . Gary McGuire is going head over heels for Marie Hubber. . . Hey, Ethel Nash, you'd better keep your eyes on Carney, because Dorothy Webb is slowly but surely moving you out. . . Hey, Donald Davidson, is it true that your heart beats only for Constance Jones? . . . Claudette Swink, who is your lover these days? Are you still crying your heart out over your lost love?

I HEAR THAT a young rooster by the name of Phillip Hampton is still crowing to a young chick, namely Patricia Rowley. . . Cecilia Tuggle, is it true that you are still head over hills in love with Larry Brown? That's it, let's keep the good times rolling. . . It seems that all the girls on the

50 Negroes

might be optioned or traded. CLEVELAND INDIANS — Minnie Minoso and Larry Doby, both former Tribesmen, rejoined the team via trades and will add punch. Billy Harrell likely to stick as utility infielder and might eventually win the 3rd base job. Jim "Mudcat" Grant, a rookie hurler, has been promoted to the varsity and will be counted on for relief work. WASHINGTON SENATORS — Julio Becquer will be retained because of his fielding and pinch-hitting ability.

KANSAS CITY ATHLETICS — Vic Power, installed as clean-up hitter, looking for good year. So is Hector Lopez, who apparently has won back his regular 3rd base job.

hill are going hog-wild over Donald Woods. But, Donald, why don't you hip them that Sandra Reynolds has your heart?

Talk is going about town that Dorothy Finch is singing "Maybe" to DeWayne Smith, but he is singing "Desire Me" to Marcella Carpenter. . . Hey, Marilyn Cade, who's the boy you're trying to play hard to get with? . . . Lee Moore and his girl, Joann Carpenter, are really shaking, rattling and rolling it. Shake on, kids.

Well, lovers, the story you have just read is true. No names have been changed to protect the innocent. Just don't lose your cools. Till later!
